Shadow Side Of Community And The Growth Of The Self:

The Shadow Side of Community and the Growth of the Self Jacques Le Goff, Mary Wolff-Salin, 1992 Biblical Foundations for Small Group Ministry Gareth Weldon Icenogle, 1994-03-01 Drawing on biblical teaching and the ministry of the early church Gareth Weldon Icenogle offers guidance for setting up and running a biblically based small group ministry program Handbook of Adult Development and Learning Carol Hoare, 2006-03-30 Adult development and learning have always existed as two separate fields of study with development falling under psychology and learning under education Recent advances in theory research and practice however have made it clear that an important reciprocal relationship exists between them advances in development frequently lead to learning and conversely learning quite often fuels development The synchronicity between development and learning is responsible for positive changes in many capacities including insight intelligence reflective and meta cognition personality expression interpersonal competence and self efficacy This synchronicity is also leading to the growth of a new discipline at the borders of adult development and learning The Handbook of Adult Development and Learning is the first to bring together the leading scholars from both adult development and learning to explore what will form the foundation for this new discipline the latest research at the intersection of these fields It examines six major aspects of their intersection foundations key areas of integration the self system higher reaches of development and learning essential contexts and specific applications An introductory chapter explains why it is so important to recognize and fuel the growth of this new discipline Subsequent chapters review the latest theoretical and empirical literature and provide a rich itinerary for future research This handbook is a must read for all who promote optimal aging It will be an invaluable reference for scholars in development and education as well as rich resource for policy makers and practitioners such as corporate executives and human resource personnel Embracing Life Ph D David Lucky Goff, 2013-08-27 Our story is changing The Universe has given our species everything we need to actualize our potential Evolution is knocking at our doors The connected life is here We are being fed this minute with the very nutrients that can assure the we live the lives that fulfill us and that serve the greater whole Our natural inheritance combined with the pattern that connects us with the rest of Life calls us to be fully ourselves This has always been the case but now it is becoming more evident Our lives are Life s life The details unfold within Cross-currents of Jungian Thought Donald R. Dyer, 1991

Studies in Formative Spirituality , 1989 The Motives of Self-Sacrifice in Korean American Culture, Family, and Marriage Chul Woo Son, 2014-01-24 The concept of self sacrifice is highly important to Korean Americans With hierarchy of age social status and gender defined roles taking primacy over equality and justice self sacrifice becomes instrumental in maintaining family and social relationships Unfortunately in family relationships sacrifice has more to do with submission and endurance than it does with sacrificial service that is redemptive and mutually beneficial When self sacrifice carries hidden motives coercive responsibility obligation shame guilt or one s reputation that self sacrifice is not self giving neither serving nor being of mutual benefit In this context it is important to explore the attitudes and motives of self sacrifice in Korean American families In unlocking and exploring the dynamics of the theology and practice of self sacrifice for Korean Americans this book explores cultural virtues marital relationships gender inequality domestic violence and their theological implications The author introduces a new approach and model with a proposal for a healthier and a more judicious understanding of self sacrifice for Korean American family relationships The element of equal regard as pertaining to self sacrifice offers Korean Americans a refreshing hope in the perspective of familial relationships and a liberating casting off of culturally and religiously imposed burdens The Korean American family ought to be grounded on a love ethic of equal regard and place its value on mutuality self sacrifice and individual fulfillment When this is done sacrificial love can be understood as justly appropriated for both husbands and wives males and females and parents and children Thus Christian teaching and theology may deliver a more transparent message of true agape and its liberating effects for the marginalized especially women and children
