Shadow Laughs:

The Healing Shadow William Alfred Quayle, 1923 Embattled Shadows Oeter Morris, 1992-08-06 Other Canadian film producers concentrated their efforts on short productions mostly in government or commercial companies such as Associated Screen News of Montreal The works of Gordon Spalding Bill Oliver and Albert Tessier are discussed in this context Morris concludes with the founding of the National Film Board which under the dynamic guidance of John Grierson was to breathe new life into a moribund industry In a postscript Morris explores some of the reasons for the unique development of Canadian film making particularly its use of natural settings and documentary when virtually the rest of the world's industry was following the Hollywood pattern of studio location and fictional plots and examines the relationship of the early industry to later developments in Canadian film making At a time when Canada's cultural industries are struggling to survive in the wake of the Free Trade Agreement with the United States and under the threat of Free Trade with Mexico Embattled Shadows makes essential reading

The Unconscious Pascal Sauvayre, David Braucher, 2020-08-02 This book explores the unconscious in psychoanalysis using cross disciplinary input from the cultural social and linguistic perspectives This book is the first contemporary collection applying the various perspectives from within the psychoanalytic discipline It covers the unconscious from three main perspectives the metaphysical including links with quantum mechanics and Jung's thought the socio relational drawing on ideas from politics inter generational trauma and the interpersonal and the linguistic drawing on notions of the social construct of language and hermeneutics Throughout the history of psychoanalysis theorists have wrestled with the ubiquitousness and diverse nature of the unconscious This collection is an account of the contemporary psychoanalytic struggle to understand and work with this quintessential defining and foundational object of psychoanalysis This book is primarily of interest to practicing clinicians and trainees It is also of significant interest to any academic professionals and students who adapt psychoanalytic thought in their studies in the humanities including literature philosophy and the social sciences

Flickers William Trowbridge, 2000-01-01 In his latest collection of poems William Trowbridge explores the fascination Americans have with movies how flicks allow us to temporarily forget our problems and ironically to forget that real conflicts are what make us human The language he uses is the American language of pop culture sports talk movie talk shoptalk and clichés all are blended together into carefully crafted lines that are uniquely Trowbridge's Readers will be delighted to follow each poem to its effectively understated end These poems are dark comedies that capture both the eerie and the ordinary This balance is not easily achieved but like a veteran comedian executing a pratfall Trowbridge makes it all seem natural His surreal family the Glads satirizes life in suburbia and reflects the often absurd margins of our urban lifestyle By contrast a group of poems revolving around a packing house in Kansas City Trowbridge worked there as a young man reminds us of those darker places in our lives that exist just across the street from the ledgers and lapels The variety of subjects Trowbridge works with is refreshing Whether he is writing about Buster Keaton Fred

Astaire June bugs baseball the holocaust Cadillacs or old dogs his eye is always focused on the turn of phrase that will catch us off guard His well crafted lines are full of wit and humor He approaches his subjects like Coyote approaches Fox smiling ready to expose his dear friend to the reality of his existence through sleight of hand And like Coyote he teaches us to laugh at ourselves or perish under the weight of our everyday lives
