Shadows Of A Hand The Drawings Of Victor Hugo:

Shadows of a Hand Victor Hugo, Florian Rodari, Drawing Center (New York, N.Y.), 1998 As poet novelist dramatist journalist critic political activist and leader of the Romantic movement in France Hugo 1802-1885 loomed large over literature and cultural life in France for the major part of the 19th century his volume published in association with a 1998 exhibition at the Drawing Center in New York showcases Hugo's striking Shadows of a Hand Victor Hugo, Florian Rodari, Ann

Philbin, 1998-01-01 Art in Literature, Literature in Art in 19th Century France Emilie Sitzia, 2011-12-08 The traditional relationship between painting and literature underwent a profound change in nineteenth century France Painting progressively asserted its independence from literature as it liberated itself from narrative obligations whilst interrogating the concept of subject matter itself Simultaneously the influence of art on the writing styles of authors increased and the character of the artist established itself as a recurring motif in French literature This book offers a panoramic review of the relationship between art and literature in nineteenth century France By means of a series of case studies chosen from key moments throughout the nineteenth century the aim of this study is to provide a focused analysis of specific examples of this relationship revealing both its multifaceted nature as well as offering a panorama of the development of this on going and increasingly complex cultural relationship From Jacques Louis David's irreverence for classical texts to Victor Hugo's graphic works from Edouard Manet's illustrations to Vincent Van Gogh's paintings of books from Honoré de Balzac's Unknown Masterpiece to Joris Karl Huysmans's A Rebours this interdisciplinary investigation of the links between literature and art in France throws new light on both fields of creative endeavour during a critical phase of France's cultural history The

Mediated Mind Susan Zieger, 2018-06-05 How did we arrive at our contemporary consumer media economy Why are we now fixated on screens imbibing information that constantly expires and longing for more direct or authentic kinds of experience The Mediated Mind answers these questions by revisiting a previous media revolution the nineteenth century explosion of mass print Like our own smartphone screens printed paper and imprinted objects touched the most intimate regions of nineteenth century life The rise of this printed ephemera and its new information economy generated modern consumer experiences such as voracious collecting and curating fantasies of disembodied mental travel and information addiction Susan Zieger demonstrates how the nineteenth century established affective psychological social and cultural habits of media consumption that we still experience even as pixels supersede paper Revealing the history of our own moment The Mediated Mind challenges the commonplace assumption that our own new media lack a past or that our own experiences are unprecedented Representational Strategies in Les Misérables and Selected Drawings by Victor Hugo

James M. Phillips, 1999 This book considers the interplay between art and literature by comparing representation techniques in passages from Les Misérables with artistic techniques in selected drawings by Victor Hugo In both his artistic and literary production Hugo uses a composite representational strategy that blends verbal and visual elements attempting to break free of textual and pictorial media constraints His dual interest in text and image foreshadows contemporary expressive production which now dominates communication

The Films of Eric Rohmer L. Anderst, 2014-03-13 Eric Rohmer was a key figure in French New Wave cinema Contributors to this volume revisit complicate and upend accepted readings and interpretations of perennial Rohmerian topics including the important role of language in his films the influence of the arts depictions of gender and class and the roles played by space and place in his films

Phantasmagoria Marina Warner, 2006 With over thirty illustrations in color and black and white Phantasmagoria takes readers on an intellectually exhilarating tour of ideas of spirit and soul in the modern world illuminating key questions of imagination and cognition Warner tells the unexpected and often disturbing story about shifts in thought about consciousness and the individual person from the first public waxworks portraits at the end of the eighteenth century to stories of hauntings possession and loss of self in modern times She probes the perceived distinctions between fantasy and deception and uncovers a host of spirit forms angels ghosts fairies revenants and zombies that are still actively present in contemporary culture

Painting and the Turn to Cultural Modernity in Spain Andrew Ginger, 2007-08 Introduction Note on practical matters Pastiche plural meanings and disorientation Being Eugenio Lucas Pastiche and multiple identity an alternative path Pastiche in nineteenth century Spain Disorientation and national culture Decontextualization and time The persistence of memory ambiguity from the fall to the rebirth of freedom Composition and decomposition The autonomous sign and the crisis of oligarchic liberalism Historical introduction to part 2 the crisis of oligarchic liberalism 1848 68 Social exclusion sovereignty and the democratic ideal Landscapes seascapes poverty and nationality Women and the direction of history Violent renewal the revolution of 1854 and the reactivation of foreign policy National tradition self and pragmatic democracy Conclusion

Amateur Craft Stephen Knott, 2015-08-27 Amateur Craft provides an illuminating and historically grounded account of amateur craft in the modern era from 19th century Sunday painters and amateur carpenters to present day railway modellers and yarnbombers Stephen Knott's fascinating study explores the curious and unexpected attributes of things made outside standardised models of mass production arguing that amateur craft practice is differential a temporary moment of control over work that both departs from and informs our productive engagement with the world Knott's discussion of the theoretical aspects of amateur craft practice is substantiated by historical case studies that cluster around the period 1850 1950 Looking back to the emergence of the modern amateur he makes reference to contemporary art and design practice that harnesses or exploits amateur conditions of making From Andy Warhol to Simon Starling such artistic interest elucidates the mercurial qualities of amateur craft Invaluable for students and researchers in art and design contemporary craft material culture and social history Amateur Craft counters both the marginalisation and the glorification of amateur craft practice It is richly illustrated with 41 images 14 in colour including 19th century ephemera and works of contemporary art
