Shadows Of Vietnam Lyndon Johnsons Wars:

Shadows of Vietnam Frank E. Vandiver, 1997 Compellingly addressing long standing questions of whether the White House had become isolated from public opinion and whether Johnson was hardened to the voices raised against the war Vandiver shows the president as a man who agonized, raged and grew in response to crises in Vietnam and at home A Companion to Lyndon B. Johnson Mitchell B. Lerner, 2012-02-13 This companion offers an overview of Lyndon B Johnson's life, presidency and legacy as well as a detailed look at the central arguments and scholarly debates from his term in office. Explores the legacy of Johnson and the historical significance of his years as president. Covers the full range of topics from the social and civil rights reforms of the Great Society to the increased American involvement in Vietnam. Incorporates the dramatic new evidence that has come to light through the release of around 8 000 phone conversations and meetings that Johnson secretly recorded as President. Foreign Policy of Lyndon B. Johnson Jonathan Colman, 2012-09-11 A fresh up to date and balanced overview of Johnson's policies across a range of theatres and issues with the aim of generating a proper understanding of his successes and failures in foreign policy. LBJ's 1968 Kyle Longley, 2018-02-22 1968 was an unprecedented year in terms of upheaval on numerous scales: political, military, economic, social, cultural. In the United States perhaps no one was more undone by the events of 1968 than President Lyndon Baines Johnson. Kyle Longley leads his readers on a behind the scenes tour of what Johnson characterized as the year of a continuous nightmare. Longley explores how LBJ perceived the most significant events of 1968 including the Vietnam War, the assassinations of Martin Luther King Jr and Robert Kennedy and the violent Democratic National Convention in Chicago. His responses to the crises were sometimes effective but often tragic and LBJ's refusal to seek re-election underscores his recognition of the challenges facing the country in 1968. As much a biography of a single year as it is of LBJ, LBJ's 1968 vividly captures the tumult that dominated the headlines on a local and global level. President Lyndon Johnson and Soviet Communism John Dumbrell, 2004 This major new study fills a significant gap in the academic literature on the Cold War by considering President Lyndon Johnson's policy towards the Soviet Union. The author examines the attitudes of Johnson and his leading advisers toward the Soviet leadership, taking into account the effects of Moscow's growing splits with Beijing, the impact on US-Soviet relations of nuclear issues, the Vietnam War and clashes over Cuba, the Middle East and Eastern Europe. The author's research is based on detailed scrutiny of archives in Britain and the United States as well as recently published document collections. His study also examines the President's personal leadership qualities, his mistakes in Vietnam and his success as a peacemaker with Moscow. The book constitutes a major contribution to literature on President Johnson's foreign policy beyond Vietnam. The book will be of interest to students of the Cold War, the Johnson Presidency and of US foreign relations. China and the Vietnam Wars, 1950-1975 Qiang Zhai, 2005-10-21 In the quarter century after the founding of the People's Republic of China in 1949, Beijing assisted Vietnam in its struggle against two formidable foes: France and the United States. Indeed, the rise and fall of this alliance is one of the most crucial developments in the history of the Cold War in Asia Drawing on newly released Chinese archival sources memoirs and diaries and documentary collections Qiang Zhai offers the first comprehensive exploration of Beijing's Indochina policy and the historical domestic and international contexts within which it developed In examining China's conduct toward Vietnam Zhai provides important insights into Mao Zedong's foreign policy and the ideological and geopolitical motives behind it Throughout the 1950s and 1960s he shows Mao considered the United States the primary threat to the security of the recent Communist victory in China and therefore saw support for Ho Chi Minh as a good way to weaken American influence in Southeast Asia In the late 1960s and 1970s however when Mao perceived a greater threat from the Soviet Union he began to adjust his policies and encourage the North Vietnamese to accept a peace agreement with the United States Military Review ,1998 Quarterly Review of Military Literature ,1998
