Shadows Specters Shards Making History In Avant Garde Film:

Shadows, Specters, Shards Jeffrey Skoller, Demonstrates how avant garde films better reflect the complexity of history than conventional film The Avant-Garde Feature Film William E.B. Verrone,2011-11-08 Here is a critical and historical overview of unconventional and aesthetically challenging films all of feature length The author focuses on the particular forms of contemporary avant garde films which often rely on characteristics associated with historical films of the same genre Included are works by such visionary filmmakers as David Lynch Luis Bunuel Jean Cocteau Jean Luc Godard Guy Maddin and Derek Jarman The first of the two appendices contains a filmography of key avant garde feature films from Haxan Witchcraft Through the Ages 1922 to Maximum Shame 2010 The second appendix offers a brief list of directors who have made significant contributions to films that take alternative approaches to cinematic practice establishing new grounds for analysis and evaluation Brazilian Cinema and the Aesthetics of Ruins Guilherme Carréra,2021-12-16 Winner of the British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies BAFTSS 2023 Award for Best First Monograph Winner of the Association of Moving Image Researchers AIM 2022 Award for Best Monograph Guilherme Carrera's compelling book examines imagery of ruins in contemporary Brazilian cinema and considers these representations in the context of Brazilian society Carrera analyses three groups of unconventional documentaries focused on distinct geographies Brasília The Age of Stone 2013 and White Out Black In 2014 Rio de Janeiro ExPerimetral 2016 The Harbour 2013 Tropical Curse 2016 and HU Enigma 2011 and indigenous territories Corumbiara They Shoot Indians Don't They 2009 Tava The House of Stone 2012 Two Villages One Path 2008 and Guarani Exile 2011 In portraying ruinscapes in different ways these powerful films articulate critiques of the notions of progress and under development in the Brazilian nation Carrera invites the reader to walk amid the debris and reflect upon the strategies of spatial representation employed by the filmmakers He addresses this body of films in relation to the legacies of Cinema Novo Tropicália and Cinema Marginal asking how these presentday films dialogue with or depart from previous traditions Through this dialogue he argues the selected films challenge not only documentary making conventions but also the country's official narrative Cosmopolitan Film Cultures in Latin America, 1896-1960 Rielle Navitski,Nicolas Poppe,2017-06-19 Cosmopolitan Film Cultures in Latin America examines how cinema forged cultural connections between Latin American publics and film exporting nations in the first half of the twentieth century Predating today's transnational media industries by several decades these connections were defined by active economic and cultural exchanges as well as longstanding inequalities in political power and cultural capital The essays explore the arrival and expansion of cinema throughout the region from the first screenings of the Lumière Cinématographe in 1896 to the emergence of new forms of cinephilia and cult spectatorship in the 1940s and beyond Examining these transnational exchanges through the lens of the cosmopolitan which emphasizes the ethical and political dimensions of cultural consumption illuminates the role played by moving images in negotiating between the local national and global and between

Towards a Film Theory from Below Jiri Anger, 2024-05-30 Operating between film theory media philosophy archival practice and audiovisual research Jiri Anger focuses on the relationship between figuration and materiality in early films experimental found footage cinema and video essays Would it be possible to do film theory from below through the perspective of moving image objects of their multifarious details and facets however marginal unintentional or aleatory they might be Could we treat scratches stains and shakes in archival footage as speculatively and aesthetically generative features Do these material actors have the capacity to create weird shapes within the figurative image that decenter distort and transform the existing conceptual and methodological frameworks Building on his theoretical as well as practical experience with the recently digitized corpus of the first Czech films created by Jan Kr eneck between 1898 and 1911 the author demonstrates how technological defects and accidents in archival films shape their aesthetic function and our understanding of the materiality of film in the digital age The specific clashes between the figurative and material spheres are understood through the concept of a crack up This term developed by Francis Scott Fitzgerald and theoretically reimaged by Gilles Deleuze allows us to capture the convoluted relationship between figuration and materiality as inherent to the medium of film containing negativity and productivity difference and simultaneity contingency and fate at the same time even within the tiniest cinematic units

Greek Tragedy on Screen Pantelis Michelakis, 2013-08-29 Greek Tragedy on Screen considers a wide range of films which engage openly with narrative and performative aspects of Greek tragedy This volume situates these films within the context of on going debates in film criticism and reception theory in relation to theoretical or critical readings of tragedy in contemporary culture Michelakis argues that film adaptations of Greek tragedy need to be placed between the promises of cinema for a radical popular culture and the divergent cultural practices and realities of commercial films art house films silent cinema and films for television home video and DVD In an age where the boundaries between art and other forms of cultural production are constantly intersected and reconfigured the appeal of Greek tragedy for the screen needs to be related to the longing it triggers for origins and authenticity as well as to the many uncertainties such as homelessness violence and loss of identity with which it engages The films discussed include not only critically recognized films by directors such Michael Cacoyannis Jules Dassin and Pier Paolo Pasolini but also more recent films by Woody Allen Tony Harrison Werner Herzog and Lars von Trier Moreover it also considers earlier and largely neglected films of cinematic traditions which lie outside Hollywood
