printed under one man's name suggests a fascinating possibility Could William Shakespeare have written the apocryphal plays while serving as a front man for the poet in purple robes a hidden court poet who was much admired by a literary coterie in the 1590s And could the poet in purple robes have been the great poet and statesman Thomas Sackville 1536 1608 a previously overlooked authorship candidate who is an excellent fit to the Shakespearean glass slipper Both of these scenarios are well supported by literary and historical records many of which have not been previously considered in the context of the Shakespeare authorship debate Shakespeare's Literary Authorship Patrick Cheney, 2008-06-26 This book considers Shakespeare as a literary figure analysing his full professional career both poetry and plays The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare Arthur F.
