will come to realize the true strength of these men's relationships as you share in their struggles within a society that offers them little recognition or support for their successful relationships. Co-editor Alfred Lees explains in the introduction to Longtime Companions: We've all worked diligently to make our partnerships sound nurturing and enduring. We've done this without any social motivation largely without role models in the face of official disapproval or contempt. We've told our stories here to refute by the simple facts of our experience the grotesque misrepresentation of gays as being incapable of stable committed relationships. Will add more. Through a treasury of autobiographical essays Longtime Companions documents how committed gay male unions can be as enduring, nurturing and diverse as heterosexual marriages and proves that loving commitment and life sharing are not exclusive to heterosexual unions. A celebration of gay diversity, contributors vary in age, profession, geographic location and attitudes. You will learn the intimate details of the couples' lives including how they met their partners, how soon they committed to each other, how they managed to collaborate on successful fulfilling lives, how some have maintained their commitment as part of an open relationship. You will come to realize the true strength of these men's relationships as you share in their struggles within a society that offers them little recognition or support for their successful relationships. Co-Author Alfred Lees explains in the Introduction to Longtime Companions: We've all worked diligently to make our partnerships sound nurturing and enduring. We've done this without any social innovation largely without role models in the face of official disapproval or contempt. We've told our stories here to refute by the simple facts of our experience the grotesque misrepresentation of gays as being incapable of stable committed relationships.

For The Love of Harlan C. Lamp, 2006-04 75-year-old Jack Barret returned for the office Christmas party and met Cydney, less than half his age. They loved dancing and entered a relationship. Cyd had multiple secrets. As a baby, someone abandoned her on a roadside near Harlan, Iowa. Now an accountant in Phoenix, she had changed her name. Cyd had a darker secret she dared not reveal to anyone. Housewives Barbara, Jackie and Monica, who paid blackmail for years, decided to silence the blackmailer. Meanwhile, Monica's son Ken Shubert, a reporter on a small town newspaper, sought an older sister that his mother refused to admit existed. His search included State Senator Sleighman, now seeking election to Congress. The Senator used desperate measures to prevent the discovery of his extra-marital daughter and more sinister extremes to conceal the daughter of his wife of whom he was not the father. Could Cyd find happiness while searching for identity in this maelstrom of secrecy, deceit and betrayal?
