Unlike authors who engage in hype and sensationalism in order to foster or debunk myths Nickell approaches each case with a rational and scientific approach intended to find the truth Occam's Razor all things being equal the simplest solution is the best one is a principal instrument in his investigative toolbox as well as the belief that it is the claimant's responsibility to provide the extraordinary proof required in such extraordinary cases Adventures in Paranormal Investigation features Nickell's on site explorations in unusual phenomena Among the forty unique cases Nickell examines mysteries ranging from snake charmers who purport to hold influence over the reptiles to the Holocaust victims who reportedly haunt a gas chamber in Dachau to Lake Simcoe's resident lake monster Igopogo in Canada In addition to the case studies Nickell analyzes how the propensity to fantasize can affect human perceptions of and belief in paranormal activity and how his personal experience with the paranormal was altered when intuition led to the discovery of a daughter he didn't know existed More than just another myth busting text Adventures in Paranormal Investigation brings together reason and scientific analyses to explain both the phenomena and the role of human perception therein establishing Nickell as the foremost paranormal investigator of our time

The Tel Quel Reader Patrick Ffrench, Roland-François Lack, 1998 The Tel Quel Reader presents for the first time in English many of the key essays that played an instrumental role in shaping the contours of literary and cultural debate in the 1960s and 1970s Tel Quel was a French journal and publishing team that printed some of the earliest work by Derrida Bataille Kristeva Barthes Foucault and

Deleuze From its beginning in 1960 to its closure in 1982 TQ published some of the key essays of major poststructuralist thinkers The Reader includes essays available in English for the first time by Kristeva and Foucault and a fascinating interview with Barthes It provides a unique insight into the poststructuralist movement and presents some of the pioneering essays on literature and culture gender film semiotics and psychoanalysis Although articles included here cover diverse areas from the semiology of paragrams to the readability of Sade a common perspective runs through them the recognition of excess and the seduction of writing The Tel Quel Reader fills a crucial gap in the English literature on literary and cultural theory and presents a case for the enduring value of the journal's enterprise Science, Mind and Paranormal Experience
