Clarke, 2011-03-08 The recent conflict between indigenous Uyghurs and Han Chinese demonstrates that Xinjiang is a major trouble spot for China with Uyghur demands for increased autonomy and where Beijing's policy is to more firmly integrate the province within China This book provides an account of how China's evolving integrationist policies in Xinjiang have influenced its foreign policy in Central Asia since the establishment of the People's Republic in 1949 and how the policy of integration is related to China's concern for security and its pursuit of increased power and influence in Central Asia The book traces the development of Xinjiang from the collapse of the Qing empire in the early twentieth century to the present and argues that there is a largely complementary relationship between China's Xinjiang Central Asia and grand strategy derived interests This pattern of interests informs and shapes China's diplomacy in Central Asia and its approach to the governance of Xinjiang Michael E Clarke shows how China's concerns and policies although pursued with vigour in recent decades are of long standing and how domestic problems and policies in Xinjiang have for a long time been closely bound up with wider international relations issues Community Matters in Xinjiang: 1880-1949 Ildikó Bellér-Hann, 2008-08-31 Based on a wide range of Western and local materials this book offers an introduction to the historical anthropology of the Muslim Uyghur of Xinjiang from the late 19th century to 1949 The author argues that social relations in this era were shaped at all levels by the principles of reciprocity and community Particular attention is paid to the domestic domain and to life cycle and religious rituals This is the first time that Xinjiang has been approached from the perspective of historical anthropology Giving substance to the concept of tradition which modern Uyghurs invoke when constructing their collective identity Bellér-Hann's study also has implications for contemporary analyses of inter ethnic relations in this sensitive region Pamirian Crossroads and Beyond Hermann Kreutzmann, 2024-08-05 In Pamirian Crossroads and Beyond Hermann Kreutzmann offers insights in his fieldwork based research in High Asia during four decades A human geographical perspective is pursued in which case studies about colonial and post colonial boundary making exchange relations of mountain communities across international borders the transformation of agricultural and pastoral practices and the effects of modernisation strategies in neighbouring countries are centred in the Hindukush Wakhan Quadrangle Pamirian Crossroads Karakoram Mountains and Himalaya Empirical evidence is augmented by in depth archival research thus allowing a perspective from the 19th to the 21st century By shifting the focus to mountain peripheries and emphasising spaces in between urban centres of power in Afghanistan
