Major Principles Of Media Law 1991:

Major Principles of Media Law Wayne Overbeck, 2001 Written by a former communications attorney and daily newspaper editor MAJOR PRINCIPLES OF MEDIA LAW is a comprehensive and concise summary of media law It has been refined through eleven editions and reviewed over the years by more than 30 law scholars MAJOR PRINCIPLES is revised every year to include the latest developments in communications law through the conclusion of the U S Supreme Court's term Each August a new edition is available for fall classes with recent developments though July 1 fully integrated into the text not added as an appendix or a separate supplement

Jean-Luc Godard's Hail Mary Maryel Locke, Charles Warren, 1993 Maryel Locke and Charles Warren present twelve original essays by film critics filmmakers theologians and philosophers that examine the 1985 film Hail Mary directed by Jean Luc Godard and its companion film The Book of Mary directed by Anne Marie Mi ville The films are collectively released under the title Hail Mary The interpretative essays offer a rich spectrum of analysis and opinion representing many divergent points of view about critical theory the status of women and the value of film as a medium Locke and Warren also include two important interviews with Godard brief biographies and complete filmographies of Godard and Mi ville a short breakdown of the two films including the English subtitles and the script of the French dialogue to complete a remarkably comprehensive treatment of this important film The only film based on the biblical story of the Virgin Mary Godard's Hail Mary is a contemporary Swiss French representation of Mary's virgin pregnancy the birth of her son and her relationship with Joseph and her young child Mi ville's companion film is about a young girl named Mary whose parents get a divorce While neither film is overtly religious the initial release of Hail Mary brought public protests court cases a physical attack on Godard and condemnation by the Pope

The Communicator's Guide to Media Law and Ethics Mark Pearson, 2023-11-23 This book offers an introduction to the key legal and ethical topics confronting Australian journalists and strategic communicators both at home and internationally and offers a suite of reflective techniques for navigating them It starts by positioning morals ethics and the law in their historical and philosophical frameworks by tracing the evolution of free expression and professional media ethics Media law and ethics are then contextualized in their modern international human rights framework Readers are equipped with a skill set for reflecting on the law and ethics of professional media dilemmas including mindful reflection the Potter Box journaling concept mapping and discussion Such approaches are then applied to key topic areas including free expression reputation confidentiality privacy justice intellectual property national security discrimination and harassment and conflicted interests Each is examined in terms of its philosophical underpinnings relationship to human rights professional ethical context international examples legal principles key Australian laws legal cases and strategies for applying reflective practice techniques It concludes on a confident note imploring communicators to engage in constructive and mindful strategic communication with the authority and confidence that results from a working knowledge of media law and ethics This handbook is for professional communicators and students in all fields but particularly in journalism public relations corporate communication media relations and marketing

Intellectual Property, Competition & New Technologies Alexandre Dias Pereira, This book brings together a series of legal studies on intellectual property competition and new technologies published in international journals and other publications mainly in English The book is aimed at students of intellectual property competition and digital law but it can also be useful to those interested in teaching and research as well as in forensic practice and management of these rights Intellectual property has developed to a large extent in line with the challenges of new technologies especially in the digital age New technologies are challenging other areas of law from contracts to the protection of personal data cybersecurity and cybercrime as well as regulation and competition in the digital market This work also includes some studies on the legal issues of the new economy providing an opportunity to study the broader context of the information society and the digital economy

Journalism Ethics and Regulation Chris Frost, 2014-05-12 Technology and the democratising of news gathering continue to change traditional journalistic practice making the path through ethical and regulatory frameworks tough to negotiate As high profile celebrity cases such as Max Mosley's vividly illustrate conflicts between the law ethics and the public's right and desire to be informed are not easily resolved This comprehensive volume addresses the ethical considerations dilemmas and challenges the practising journalist faces each minute every day Providing context and practical advice it explores an area of crucial importance for the 21st century thoroughly equipping the reader with the information and tools to negotiate this challenging area knowledgeably practically and responsibly This book has been written for students and trainee journalists working journalists and editors and indeed for any student of the media
