Keep On Fighting Dorothy H. Christenson, 2015-07-15 Marian Alexander Spencer was born in 1920 in the Ohio River town of Gallipolis Ohio one year after the Red Summer of 1919 that saw an upsurge in race riots and lynchings Following the example of her grandfather an ex slave and community leader Marian joined the NAACP at thirteen and grew up to achieve not only a number of civic leadership firsts in her adopted home city of Cincinnati but a legacy of lasting civil rights victories Of these the best known is the desegregation of Cincinnati s Coney Island amusement park She also fought to desegregate Cincinnati schools and to stop the introduction of observers in black voting precincts in Ohio Her campaign to raise awareness of industrial toxic waste practices in minority neighborhoods was later adapted into national Superfund legislation In 2012 Marian s friend and colleague Dot Christenson sat down with her to record her memories The resulting biography not only gives us the life story of remarkable leader but encapsulates many of the twentieth century s greatest struggles and advances Spencer s story will prove inspirational and instructive to citizens and students alike The Publishers Weekly ,2002 Remembrances in Black Charles F. Hunt to the University of Arkansas Law School the university became the first southern public institution of higher education to officially desegregate without being required to do so by court order The process was difficult but an important first step had been taken Other students would follow in Silas Hunt's footsteps and they along with the university would have to grapple with the situation Remembrances in Black is an oral history that gathers the personal stories of African Americans who worked as faculty and staff and of students who studied at the state's flagship institution These stories illustrate the anguish struggle and triumph of individuals who had their lives indelibly marked by their experiences at the school Organized chronologically over sixty years this book illustrates how people of color navigated both the evolving campus environment and that of the city of Fayetteville in their attempt to fulfill personal aspirations Their stories demonstrate that the process of desegregation proved painfully slow to those who chose to challenge the forces of exclusion Also the remembrances question the extent to which desegregation has been fully realized
