Making All Things Human A Church In East Harlem:

Making All Things Human Melvin E. Schoonover, 2003-10-29 Making All Things Human is a story of Christianity in action an account of the struggles faced by a courageous white minister and his largely African American and Puerto Rican parish in New York's East Harlem It celebrates ways in which the people of East Harlem and the Chambers Baptist Church working with courage imagination and humor cut through the layers of indifference to make New York more human and more humane Making All Things Human: a Church in East Harlem [by] Melvin E. Schoonover. Foreword by William Stringfellow Melvin E. Schoonover, The Roots of Urban Renaissance Brian D. Goldstein, 2023-03-14 An acclaimed history of Harlem's journey from urban crisis to urban renaissance With its gleaming shopping centers and refurbished row houses today's Harlem bears little resemblance to the neighborhood of the midcentury urban crisis Brian Goldstein traces Harlem's Second Renaissance to a surprising source the radical social movements of the 1960s that resisted city officials and fought to give Harlemites control of their own destiny Young Harlem activists inspired by the civil rights movement envisioned a Harlem built by and for its low income predominantly African American population In the succeeding decades however the community based organizations they founded came to pursue a very different goal a neighborhood with national retailers and increasingly affluent residents The Roots of Urban Renaissance demonstrates that gentrification was not imposed on an unwitting community by unscrupulous developers or opportunistic outsiders Rather it grew from the neighborhood's grassroots producing a legacy that benefited some longtime residents and threatened others The Chicago Theological Seminary Register Chicago Theological Seminary, 1970 Alumni directory issue 1859 1951 v 44 no 4 v 45 no 1 The ^AAmerican Catholic Revolution Mark S. Massa, S.J., 2010-09-14 This book is essential reading for anyone wishing to understand the current debates and tensions within American Catholicism which are the result of the American Catholic confrontation with historical change that occurred between 1964 and 1974 and gave rise to the current division between liberals and conservatives in America's largest church American Book Publishing Record, 1970 Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Karl Brown, Bertine Emma Weston, Helen E. leadership Everything William Stringfellow said and did was grounded in his profound belief in the Incarnation and the Eschaton He knew Jesus Christ to be the Word of God who is in all things and who challenges the powers and principalities of this world calling people and institutions to repentance and newness of life In Prophet of Justice Prophet of Life editor Robert Boak Slocum has gathered a diverse group of clergy legal scholars and seminary faculty to produce this stimulating and provocative series of essays on the life and work of William Stringfellow Journal of Biblical Literature ,1970 Cities and Churches: 1960-1979 Loyde H.
