Making & Keeping Friends John J. Schmidt, 1997-10-06 This unique program helps counselors teach students how to make and keep friends as they learn about themselves others and the nature of friendships Organized into nine sections from 1 Understanding Friendships and 2 Becoming Friends to 9 Sending Yourself Invitations and printed in a wire bound format for easy copying of 70 activity sheets and role play scripts with the lessons The Complete Guide to Asperger's Syndrome Tony Attwood, 2007 A guide to Asperger's syndrome describes what it is and how it is diagnosed along with information on such topics as bullying emotions language movement cognitive ability and long term relationships Martian in the Playground Clare Sainsbury, 2009-10-02 This deceptively little book contains more truth and provides more insight into what it is like to have Asperger's Syndrome than many a weighty tome on the subject It offers a view from the inside but it is not yet another autobiography Admirably and refreshingly the author has refrained from giving an account solely based on her own experiences Instead she sets out observations from 25 different sufferers giving often astonishing and sometimes harrowing glimpses of what actually happens to a child with Asperger's Syndrome in the classroom in the playground in the lunch queue and at home The Journal of Child Psychology and Psychiatry This award winning book illuminates what it means to be a person who has Asperger's Syndrome by providing a window into a unique and particular world Drawing on her own experience of schooling and that of a network of friends and correspondents who share her way of thinking and responding Clare Sainsbury reminds us of the potential for harm which education holds for those who do not fit This book holds insights that take us beyond the standard guidance on how to manage autistic spectrum disorder It challenges the way we might handle obsessional behaviour It invites us to celebrate the pure passion of the intellect which such obsessions can represent and to recognise the delight which can be experienced by children who love to collect It reminds us that many of the autistic mannerisms we might try to suppress actually help the child to think This revised edition includes an additional introduction and extensive summary of research in the field of Asperger's Syndrome both by Tony Attwood A Parent's Guide to Understanding and Responding to Bullying Arthur M. Horne, Christopher D. Bell, 2008 This unique manual was developed to help parents assist their children in dealing with bullying situations The book promotes an understanding of the nature and extent of bullying the physical emotional and educational consequences to children who are targets of bullying who do the bullying or who as bystanders are directly affected by witnessing bullying and victimization Multisensory Teaching of Basic Language Skills Judith R. Birsh, 1999 This guide reveals the benefits of using multisensory instruction in any classroom After they review 50 years of research and experience with those with learning disabilities the authors explain how and why multisensory methods work Intervention Activities for At-risk Youth Norma J. Stumbo, 1999 Intervention Activities for At Risk Youth is an excellent resource of tried and tested activities that work with at risk youth The chapters and activity sections are intended both for those facilities that do and do not employ professional therapeutic recreation staff

The activities and goals are written in a format that staff from volunteers and childcare workers to activity staff and professional therapeutic recreation specialists can use when implementing intervention activities for at risk youth These 169 activities are meant to help professionals establish active treatment goals and encourage more positive behaviors The first three chapters provide a foundation for intervention activities The activities are divided into six sections anger control and stress management 13 activities positive physical and mental health 31 activities cooperation communication and listening 26 activities problem solving decision making and planning skills 17 activities leisure awareness and leisure resources 49 activities and friendship and social skills 33 activities
