

Make CONNECTIONS

How do readers make connections?

Good readers make connections by using what they already know to connect a text to their life experiences, another text, or the world.

Text to Self:

This reminds me of when I...

Connecting the story to your life & experiences

Text to Text:

This reminds me of a book I read...

Connecting the story to another book

Text to World:

I heard about this on the news when...

Connecting the story to the real world

Handbook of Research on Assessment Practices and Pedagogical Models for Immigrant Students Keengwe, Jared, Onchwari, Grace, 2019-06-14 Standardized tests have been selected as a key assessment factor in expanding the academic achievement of the national student population. However, these tests position immigrant students at the risk of academic failure, leading education experts to search for new strategies and teaching models. The Handbook of Research on Assessment Practices and Pedagogical Models for Immigrant Students is a critical research publication that focuses on research-based pedagogical practices for teaching immigrant students. Edited by a prominent IGI Global editor, this book examines the latest professional development models and assessment practices of English learners (ELs). Covering essential topics such as second language acquisition (SLA), classroom management, teacher education, refugee resettlement programs, and more, this publication is a valuable resource for academicians, professionals, researchers, administrators, faculty, and classroom teachers, as the social and academic needs of English language learners continue to present a challenge for many schools and teachers.

The Handbook of Plurilingual and Intercultural Language Learning Christiane Fäcke, Xuesong (Andy) Gao, Paula Garrett-Rucks, 2024-11-08. The most up-to-date reference text on the latest science in plurilingual and intercultural language education, covering both new research and current practice. The Handbook of Plurilingual and Intercultural Language Learning reveals the nuances and complexities of teaching and learning languages while providing a timely account of the most recent developments and research in the field. The first reference work to examine plurilingual and intercultural language teaching and learning trends across five continents, this innovative volume examines the various ways learners acquire language. Divided into four sections, this Handbook explains the conceptual basis of intercultural and plurilingual learning, describes core pedagogical concepts in different contexts, discusses various learning and teaching approaches, and surveys the historical development of foreign language instruction methods and theories. In-depth chapters address code-switching and translanguaging, equity in foreign language learning, intercultural sensitivity, technology-enhanced learning, world Englishes, the role of language policy in nation-building, the situations of migrants in language classrooms, and more. A field-defining overview of the latest research on the science of language education and acquisition. The Handbook of Plurilingual and Intercultural Language Learning explores how policy and pedagogy can adapt to the shifting demographics of local student populations as the world becomes increasingly mobile. Addresses new trends and evolving themes that are currently determining the future of language education and policy around the world. Discusses future trends in language education, policy, assessment, and teacher training in light of new attitudes about language, community, and statehood. Features contributions from a wide range of scholars reflecting different cultural, linguistic, regional, and ideological perspectives. Introduces European research discourses on intercomprehension into the English-speaking world. Part of the Wiley Blackwell Handbooks in Linguistics series. The Handbook of Plurilingual and Intercultural Language Learning is an essential resource for students, educators, and researchers in Applied Linguistics, language teaching and learning, English as a Lingua Franca, plurilingualism, multilingualism, TESOL, cognitive linguistics, language policy, language acquisition, and intercultural communication.
