are the basis of conflict The question Christian ethics must answer then is What does the good life look like in the context of conflict In this new introductory text Ellen Ott Marshall uses the inevitable reality of difference to center and organize her exploration of the system of Christian morality What can we learn from Jesus creative use of conflict in situations that were especially attuned to questions of power What does the image of God look like when we are trying to recognize the divine image within those with whom we are in conflict How can we better explore and understand the complicated work of reconciliation and justice This innovative approach to Christian ethics will benefit a new generation of students who wish to engage the perennial questions of what constitutes a faithful Christian life and a just society Love Letter to a Conflicted Church Richard P. Olson, 2010-01-01 The book is organized into three divisions and as the title implies there is a brief letter in the form of a New Testament epistle to the contemporary church a portion of which begins each chapter The first division reexamines the gifts and redemptive possibilities of anger and conflict The barriers to healthy anger conflict are considered and addressed In the second attention is given to conflicts surrounding the Bible There is a chapter on conflict and reconciliation in the Bible followed by suggestions on how people who read the Bible differently from each other can resolve some of those differences Consideration is also given to discovering biblical priorities for the contemporary church The third division offers vistas of change and reconciliation Parables of hope and promise are provided Insights from the studies of persons and communities as well as ethics and theology are summarized There is reflection on those unresolved conflicts that continue in spite of our best efforts Then moral imagination is engaged to visualize the opportunities for a church that moves Vital Christianity David L. Weaver-Zercher, William H. Willimon, 2005-08-23 Challenge beyond its present stalemates theses debilitating distinctions between spirituality and social justice by exploring the numerous threads that can and should connect these two components of holistic Christian living John Howard Yoder Mark Nation, 2006-01-05 John Howard Yoder 1927 1997 was a leading Christian witness against violence articulating a theology from his own tradition so powerful that it compelled people from many other traditions to take notice The war on terror the temptations of nationalism and the painful divisions between those who call themselves followers of Jesus signal our need to hear Yoder's voice again at the beginning of the twenty first century In his book Mark Thiessen Nation provides an insider s introduction to Yoder demonstrating how a committed Mennonite could also be profoundly evangelical in his witness and broadly catholic in his Christian sensibilities Taking us into Yoder s life and writings Nation explores Yoder s context his keen interest in the Anabaptist tradition his sustained engagement with other Christians and other faiths and his claim that pacifism is inherent to Iesus message Reconcile John Paul Lederach, 2014-08-11 Emotionally powerful and full of practical advice and resources PUBLISHERS WEEKLY Reconcile Conflict Transformation for Ordinary Christians by international mediator John Paul Lederach serves as a guidebook for Christians seeking a scriptural view of reconciliation and practical steps for transforming conflict Originally published as The Journey Toward Reconciliation and based on Lederach's work in war zones

Aall, 2004 Some conflicts seem to defy resolution Marked by longevity recurrent violence and militant agendas these intractable conflicts refuse to be settled either on the battlefield or at the negotiating table The longer they fester the stronger the international community s inclination to lose heart and to turn away But explain the authors of this provocative volume effective mediation in intractable conflicts is possible if the mediator knows what to do and when to do it Written from the mediator s point of view Taming Intractable Conflicts lays out the steps involved in tackling the most stubborn of conflicts It first puts mediation in a larger context exploring why mediators choose or decline to become involved what happens when they get involved for the wrong reasons and the impact of the mediator's institutional and political environment. It then discusses best mediation tradecraft at different stages at the beginning of the engagement when the going gets very rough during the settlement negotiations and in the post settlement implementation stage Forceful concise and highly readable Taming Intractable Conflicts serves not only as a hands on guide for would be mediators but also as a powerful argument for students of conflict management that intractable conflicts are not beyond the reach of mediation Identity Crises and Indigenous Religious Traditions Elijah Obinna, 2017-02-10 This book highlights the complex identity crises among many Christians as they negotiate their new identities religious ideas and convictions as both Christians and members of Nigerian African societies of indigenous religious traditions and identities Through an interdisciplinary interpretation of religious practices and educational issues in teaching and ritual training the author provides tools to help analyse empirical cases These include the negotiation processes among Christians with focus on the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria PCN and members of the Ogo society within the Amasiri Afikpo North Local Government Area Ebonyi state in South eastern Nigeria Identifying the power dynamic identity role and influence of indigenous religions on Christians and the Ogo society this book reveals the limited interactions between many Christians and members of the Ogo society Questions explored include what makes the Ogo society an integral part of the socio religious life of Amasiri and what powers and identity does it confer on the initiates how is the PCN within Amasiri responding to the Ogo society through its religious practices such as baptism confirmation local auxiliary ministries and organisational structure and how does the understanding and application of conversion within the PCN impact on its members response to the Ogo society Demonstrating how complex religious identities and practices of
