Federal Register ,1994-01-07 Law, Drugs and the Making of Addiction Kate Seear,2019-06-25 This book considers how largely accepted legal truths about drugs and addiction are made and sustained through practices of lawyering Lawyers play a vital and largely underappreciated role in constituting legal certainties about substances and addiction including links between alcohol and other drugs and phenomena such as family violence Such practices exacerbate sustain and stabilise addicted realities with a range of implications many of them seemingly unjust for people who use alcohol and other drugs This book explores these issues drawing upon data collected for a major international study on alcohol and other drugs in the law including interviews with lawyers magistrates and judges analyses of case law and legislation Focussing on an array of legal practices including processes of law making human rights deliberations advocacy and negotiation strategies and the sentencing of offenders and buttressed by overarching analyses of the ethics and politics of such practices the book looks at how alcohol and other drug addiction emerges and is concretised through the everyday work lawyers and decision makers do Foregrounding practices the book also shows that law is more fragile than we might assume It concludes by presenting a blueprint for how lawyers can rethink their advocacy practices in light of this fragility and the opportunities it presents for remaking law and the subjects and objects shaped by it This ground breaking book will be of interest not only to those studying and working within the field of alcohol and drug addiction but also to lawyers and judges practising in this area and to scholars in a range of disciplines including law science and technology studies sociology gender studies and cultural studies

Ethics and Decision Making in Counseling and Psychotherapy, Fourth Edition Robert Cottone,2016-03-24 Note to Readers Publisher does not guarantee quality or access to any included digital components if book is purchased through a third party seller Completely revised and updated to reflect the new 2014 ACA Code of Ethics and current ethics codes in psychology social work and marriage and family therapy

This unparalleled text guides helping professionals in the use of ethical decision making processes as the foundation for ethical approaches to counseling and psychotherapy. The book focuses on ethical and legal challenges and standards across multiple professions emphasizing counseling. It not only identifies relevant ethical issues in clinical mental health rehabilitation, group, school, addictions, and career counseling, it also addresses couple and family therapy, clinical supervision, and forensics. The text illuminates the particular application of ethical standards within each specialty. The book features five new chapters that clearly define how ethical standards are interpreted and applied: Privacy, Confidentiality, and Privileged Communication; Informed Consent; Roles and Relationships With Clients; Professional Responsibility; and Counselor Competency. Under the umbrella of each broad topic, the particular nuances of ethical standards within each specialty are analyzed to facilitate comparison across all specialties and settings. The text also addresses current issues in office and administrative practices, technology, and forensic practice that are crucial to school, clinical, and private practice settings. Compelling case studies illustrate the connection between ethical decision making models and ethical practice. Learning objectives, a comprehensive review of scholarly literature, and a robust ancillary package for educators contribute to the fourth edition's value for use in upper level undergraduate and graduate classrooms.
