Marshal Zhukov's Greatest Battles:

Marshal Zhukov's Greatest Battles Georgi K. Zhukov, 2002-04-15 Considered by some to be the greatest general of World War II General Georgi Zhukov served as the Chief of Staff of the Soviet High Command leading Soviet troops against Germans in key battles of the war In his account of four major campaigns in the war the defense of Moscow Stalingrad and Kursk and the advance on Berlin Zhukov describes his experiences preparing for German attacks organizing counter strikes assessing the enemy and issuing the orders that pushed the front west towards Germany's capital Zhukov also tells of his extensive arguments with Stalin during the war and the political alliances and rivalries among the U S S R's generals throughout the conflict Marshal Zhukov's Greatest Battles George K. Zhukov, 1969-06 Marshal Zhukov's Greatest Battles: The battle of Moscow ; 2: The battle of Stalingrad ; 3: The battle of Kursk ; 4: The battle of Berlin Georgij Konstantinovič Žukov, 1969

Translated from the russian by theodore shabad Georgi K. Zhukov, 1969 Marshal Zhukov's greatest battles. (Introduction and editorial comment ... Harrison E. Salisbury.) [Translated by Theodore Shabad.] Georgij Konstantinovich Zhukov, 1971 From Moscow to Berlin Georgi K. Zhukov, 1991-11-01 The Greatest Battle Andrew

Nagorski, 2007-09-18 The bestselling first authoritative account of the first colossal World War II battle between Germany and the USSR based on previously unavailable documents this is the battle that decided the war and the one that Stalin tried to cover up The battle for Moscow was the biggest battle of World War II the biggest battle of all time And yet it is far less known than Stalingrad which involved about half the number of troops From the time Hitler launched his assault on Moscow on September 30 1941 to April 20 1942 seven million troops were engaged in this titanic struggle The combined losses of both sides those killed taken prisoner or severely wounded were two and a half million of which nearly two million were on the Soviet side But the Soviet capital narrowly survived and for the first time the German Blitzkrieg ended in failure This shattered Hitler's dream of a swift victory over the Soviet Union and radically changed the course of the war The full story of this epic battle has never been told because it undermines the sanitized Soviet accounts of the war which portray Stalin as a military genius and his people as heroically united against the German invader Stalin's blunders incompetence and brutality made it possible for German troops to approach the outskirts of Moscow This triggered panic in the city with looting strikes and outbreaks of previously unimaginable violence About half the city's population fled But Hitler's blunders would soon loom even larger sending his troops to attack the Soviet Union without winter uniforms insisting on an immediate German reign of terror and refusing to heed his generals' pleas that he allow them to attack Moscow as quickly as possible In the end Hitler's mistakes trumped Stalin's mistakes Drawing on declassified documents from Soviet archives including files of the dreaded NKVD on accounts of survivors and of children of top Soviet military and government officials and on reports of Western diplomats and correspondents The Greatest Battle finally illuminates the full story of a clash between two systems based on sheer terror and relentless slaughter Even as Moscow's fate hung in the balance the United States and Britain were discovering how wily a partner Stalin would turn out to be in the fight against Hitler and how eager he was to push his demands for a postwar empire in Eastern Europe In addition to chronicling the bloodshed Andrew Nagorski takes the reader behind the scenes of the early negotiations between Hitler and Stalin and then between Stalin Roosevelt and Churchill This is a remarkable addition to the history of World War II

1941: The Year Germany Lost the War Andrew Nagorski, 2019-06-04

Bestselling historian Andrew Nagorski takes a fresh look at the decisive year 1941 when Hitler's miscalculations and policy of terror propelled Churchill FDR and Stalin into a powerful new alliance that defeated Nazi Germany In early 1941 Hitler's armies ruled most of Europe Churchill's Britain was an isolated holdout against the Nazi tide but German bombers were attacking its cities and German U boats were attacking its ships Stalin was observing the terms of the Nazi Soviet Pact and Roosevelt was vowing to keep the United States out of the war Hitler was confident that his aim of total victory was within reach By the end of 1941 all that changed Hitler had repeatedly gambled on escalation and lost by invading the Soviet Union and committing a series of disastrous military blunders by making mass murder and terror his weapons of choice and by rushing to declare war on the United States after Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor Britain emerged with two powerful new allies Russia and the United States By then Germany was doomed to defeat Nagorski illuminates the actions of the major characters of this pivotal year as never before 1941 The Year Germany Lost the War is a stunning examination of unbridled megalomania versus determined leadership It also reveals how 1941 set the Holocaust in motion and presaged the postwar division of Europe triggering the Cold War 1941 was a year that forever defined our world
