Partners in Command Mark Perry,2007-05-10 A unique look at the complex relationship between two of America s foremost World War II leaders The first book ever to explore the relationship between George Marshall and Dwight Eisenhower Partners in Command eloquently tackles a subject that has eluded historians for years As Mark Perry charts the crucial impact of this duo on victory in World War II and later as they lay the foundation for triumph in the Cold War he shows us an unlikely complex collaboration at the heart of decades of successful American foreign policy and shatters many of the myths that have evolved about these two great men and the issues that tested their alliance As exciting to read as it is vitally informative this work is a signal accomplishment George C. Marshall ,1973 Forfatteren til v rket er Director of the Research Center of the George C Marshall Research Foundation og har skrevet andre milit rhistoriske b ger Disse fire bind udkom i rene fra 1964 til 1987 og har f lgende undertitler 1 Education of a General 1880 1939 2 Ordeal and Hope 1939 1942 3 Organizer of Victory 1943 1945 4 Statesman 1945 1959 Partnership Edward Farley Aldrich,2022-04-15 On September 1 1939 the day World War II broke out in Europe Gen George Marshall was sworn in as chief of staff of the U S Army Ten months later Roosevelt appointed Henry Stimson secretary of war For the next five years from adjoining offices in the Pentagon Marshall and Stimson headed the army machine that ground down the Axis Theirs was one of the most consequential collaborations of the twentieth century A dual biography of these two remarkable Americans The Partnership tells the story of how they worked together to win World War II and reshape not only the United States but the world The general and the secretary traveled very different paths to power Educated at Yale where he was Skull and Bones and at Harvard Law Henry Stimson joined the Wall Street law firm of Elihu Root future secretary of war and state himself and married the descendant of a Founding Father He went on to serve as secretary of war under Taft governor general of the Philippines and secretary of state under Hoover An internationalist Republican with a track record Stimson ticked the boxes for FDR who was in the middle of a reelection campaign at the time Thirteen years younger George Marshall graduated in the middle of his class from the Virginia Military Institute not West Point then began the standard and very slow climb up the army ranks During World War I he performed brilliant staff work for General Pershing After a string of postings Marshall ended up in Washington in the 1930s and impressed FDR with his honesty securing his appointment as chief of staff Marshall and Stimson were two very different men who combined with a dazzling synergy to lead the American military effort in World War II in roles that blended politics diplomacy and bureaucracy in addition to warfighting They transformed an outdated poorly equipped army into a modern fighting force of millions of men capable of fighting around the globe They and Marshall in particular identified the soldiers from Patton and Eisenhower to Bradley and McNair best suited for high command They helped develop worldwide strategy and logistics for battles like D Day and the Bulge They collaborated with Allies like Winston Churchill They worked well with their cagey commander in chief They planned for the postwar world They made decisions from the atomic bombs to the division of Europe that would echo for decades There were mistakes and disagreements but the partnership of Marshall and Stimson was all in all a bravura performance a master class in leadership and teamwork In the tradition of group biographies like the classic The Wise Men The Partnership shines a spotlight on two giants telling the fascinating stories of each man the dramatic story of their collaboration and the epic story of the United States in World War II
