My Hearts A Suitcase And Low Level Panic:

My Heart's a Suitcase & Low Level Panic Clare McIntyre, 1994 Two modern feminist classics by a writer who was amongst the extraordinary generation of British female playwrights to emerge in the 1980s McIntyre's first Royal Court play Low Level Panic is a deft and funny all female three hander set in a bathroom The play was directed in 1988 by Nancy Meckler with Caroline Quentin Lorraine Brunning and Elaine Hickmott in the principal roles The panic of the title is provoked by omnipresent pornography and a sexual assault on one of the characters But the play's originality and boldness lie in its treatment of the characters complex relationships with their own sexual fantasies their bodies and each other In McIntyre's next play My Heart's a Suitcase which had its premiere at the Royal Court in 1990 the sense of invasion felt by the two female central characters is dramatised by characters called Pest and Luggage who burst unpredictably through the walls of the seaside flat in which the play is set McIntyre's theatrical imagination is matched by an unsentimental but sympathetic portrayal of women trying to make sense of their place in a threatening and intrusive world Low Level Panic won the Samuel Beckett award while My Heart's a Suitcase earned McIntyre the Evening Standard's most promising playwright award with both plays quickly entering the feminist theatre canon David Edgar The Guardian My Heart's a Suitcase

Clare McIntyre, 1990 This play about fear and materialistic longing compares an angrily impoverished waitress and a philosophical ceramics teacher in the early stages of multiple sclerosis who are sharing a borrowed run down seaside apartment for the weekend Visitors include the shopaholic wife of the landlord a drunken misfit and two spectral intruders Pest a bad memory and Luggage the Patron Saint of Heavy Burdens Low Level Panic Clare McIntyre, 2017 A funny unapologetic play about the effects of society's objectification of women

Rage And Reason Heidi Stephenson, 2014-05-29 Women playwrights speak about their art and the theatre in this collection of interviews about a key decade of British drama Twenty leading contemporary dramatists discuss their work from the perspective of being both writers and women Each talks about the state of the theatre now the craft of playwrighting and the pressures of working within a male dominated environment The book also features Sarah Kane's very last public interview What I think is so exciting about the response to a number of the plays written by women in the last ten years is that they are popular with audiences because they've got this quality this energy and this culture that hasn't been seen much on stage before a humour sexiness and wit that's been missing Charlotte Keatley Rage And Reason Bloomsbury Publishing, 2014-05-29 Women playwrights speak about their art and the theatre in this collection of interviews about a key decade of British drama Twenty leading contemporary dramatists discuss their work from the perspective of being both writers and women Each talks about the state of the theatre now the craft of playwrighting and the pressures of working within a male dominated environment The book also features Sarah Kane's very last public interview What I think is so exciting about the response to a number of the plays written by women in the last ten years is that they are popular with audiences because they've got this quality this

Feminist Views on the English Stage Elaine Aston, 2003-11-24 Feminist Views on the English Stage first published in 2003 is an exciting and insightful study on drama from a feminist perspective one that challenges an idea of the 1990s as a post feminist decade and pays attention to women's playwriting marginalized by a renaissance of angry young men Working through a generational mix of writers from Sarah Kane the iconoclastic bad girl of the stage to the canonical Caryl Churchill Elaine Aston charts the significant political and aesthetic changes in women's playwriting at the century's end Aston also explores writing for the 1990s in theatre by Sarah Daniels Bryony Lavery Phyllis Nagy Winsome Pinnock Rebecca Prichard Judy Upton and Timberlake Wertenbaker

A Life in 16 Films Steve Waters, 2021-06-03 Steve Waters examines how the very idea of film has defined him as a playwright and a person in this book Through the the lens of cinema it provides a cultural and political snapshot of life in Britain from the 2nd part of the 20th century up to the present day The films spanning almost a century starting with The White Hell of Pitz Palu 1929 and moving most recently to Dark Waters 2019 each chapter examines aspects of Waters's journey from his working class Midlands upbringing to working in professional theatre to living through the Covid epidemic through the prism of a particular film From The Wizard of Oz to Code Unknown from sci fi to documentary from queer cinema to world cinema this honest comic book offers a view of film as a way of thinking about how we live In doing so it illuminates culture and politics in the UK over half a century and provides an intimate insight into drama and writing
