Vlček, 2004 The Story of My Life originally published in Czechoslovakia in 1928 is the engaging and informative autobiography of Frank Vlček a Czech immigrant who became a successful businessman in Cleveland Ohio during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The youngest of fourteen children Vlček was born to peasant parents in Budyn southern Bohemia in 1871 After attempting a career in blacksmithing in Bohemia at the age of seventeen he decided to follow his two older sisters to Cleveland home to America's second largest Czech community Vlček worked a variety of unsatisfactory jobs during his first years in Cleveland In 1895 he opened his own smithing operation which after a long struggle was transformed into a successful corporation that specialized in the manufacture of toolkits for automobiles acquisitions and the successes and travails of his operation Vlček was often able to travel home to Czechoslovakia and during those trips he noted the different cultural and political attitudes that had evolved between Czechs and their Czech American cousins Vlcek's memoir provides a rare primary source about Czech immigrants. It also offers insight into a self-made man's life philosophy, illustrates relations between ethnic groups in Cleveland during the 1880s, and demonstrates the assimilation of a late nineteenth-century immigrant in America. Readers interested in immigration history as well as the history of Cleveland will enjoy this fascinating autobiography. A
