My Life In The Moslem East:

Life in the Moslem East Pierre Ponafigdine,1911 Life in the Moslem East Pierre Ponafigdine,2015-06-11 Excerpt from Life in the Moslem East It is with much diffidence that I give the translation of my husband s book to the English speaking public and I hope they will deal leniently with my share of the work The book itself I feel needs no apology It is not a pretentious history nor an exhaustive treatise on the countries upon which it touches It is more a series of studies of certain phases of the life religion and customs of people among whom my husband has passed the thirty six years of his service people for whom he has learned to have a deep sympathy and often affection and whom he has striven to present impartially The fact of his having been for some years Secretary of Legation in Teheran acting Consul General in Tabriz five years Consul in Bagdad five years Consul General in Meshed two years on a special mission to Tashkent and the Pamirs and for the last seven years Consul General in Constantinople is a guarantee for his personal acquaintance with the subjects treated It is the English part of the work that calls forth these lines for it has been done under various difficulties Being my first attempt in translating I have not always found it easy to preserve as I have endeavoured to do something of the style and individuality of the author in the original and yet render it in good English A second difficulty is one always met with in such works and that is the English spelling of Oriental names In dealing with this problem I have followed such writers as have seemed to me to give the most correct rendering of Eastern names and words even though they are not always the most popularly accepted forms About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Life in the Moslem East Pierre Ponafigdine,1911 Everyday Life in the Muslim Middle East Donna Lee Bowen,Evelyn A. student body to an ethnically homogeneous one that reflected the newly racialized nationalism of the Turkish Republic Mary Mills Patrick's Cosmopolitan Mission and the Constantinople Woman's College explores Patrick's career from the 1870s to the 1930s tracking her personal religious struggle and her professional transformation from Protestant evangelist to feminist educator to advocate for Muslim women to finally supporter of Turkish nationalism Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Hefner, 2023-12-19 Islam and Citizenship in Indonesia examines the conditions facilitating democracy women's rights and inclusive citizenship in Indonesia the most populous Muslim majority country and the third largest democracy in the world The book shows that Muslim understandings of Islamic traditions and ethics have coevolved with the understanding and practice of democracy and citizen belonging Following thirty two years of authoritarian rule in 1998 this sprawling Southeast Asian country returned to electoral democracy The achievement brought with it however an upsurge in both the numbers and assertiveness of Islamist militias as well as a sharp increase in violence against religious minorities The resulting mobilizations have pitted the Muslim supporters of an Indonesian variety of inclusive citizenship against populist proponents of Islamist majoritarianism Seen from this historical example the book demonstrates that Muslim actors come to know and practice Islam in a manner not determined in an unchanging way by scriptural commands but in coevolution with broader currents in politics society and citizen belonging By exploring these questions in both an Indonesian and comparative context this book offers important lessons on the challenge of democracy and inclusive citizenship in the Muslim majority world Well written and informative this book will be suitable for adoption in university courses on Islam Southeast Asian Politics Indonesian and Asian studies as well as courses dealing with religion democracy and citizen belonging in multicultural societies around the world The book will be of interest to the general reader with an interest in Islam citizenship and democracy The Cumulative Book Index ,1912 A world list of books in the English language Bureau of Naval Personnel Manual United States.
