Jeane Dixon, My Life and Prophecies Jeane Dixon, Rene Noorbergen, 1970 The Story of My Life (Complete)

Augustus John Cuthbert Hare, 2020-09-28 IN 1727 the year of George the First's death Miss Grace Naylor of Hurstmonceaux though she was beloved charming and beautiful died very mysteriously in her twenty first year in the immense and weird old castle of which she had been the heiress She was affirmed to have been starved by her former governess who lived alone with her but the fact was never proved Her property passed to her first cousin Francis Hare son of her aunt Bethaia who forthwith assumed the name of Naylor The new owner of Hurstmonceaux was the only child of the first marriage of that Francis Hare who through the influence first of the Duke of Marlborough by whose side then a chaplain he had ridden on the battle fields of Blenheim and Ramilies and afterwards of his family connections the Pelhams and Walpoles rose to become one of the richest and most popular pluralists of his age Yet he had to be contented at last with the bishoprics of St Asaph and Chichester with each of which he held the Deanery of St Paul's the Archbishopric of Canterbury having twice just escaped him The Bishop's eldest son Francis was un facheux d tail de notre famille as the grandfather of Madame de Maintenon said of his son He died after a life of the wildest dissipation without leaving any children by his wife Carlotta Alston who was his stepmother's sister So the property of Hurstmonceaux went to his half brother Robert son of the Bishop's second marriage with Mary Margaret Alston heiress of the Vatche in Buckinghamshire and of several other places besides Sir Robert Walpole had been the godfather of Robert Hare Naylor and presented him with a valuable sinecure office as a christening present and he further made the Bishop urge the Church as the profession in which father and godfather could best aid the boy's advancement Accordingly Robert took orders obtained a living and was made a Canon of Winchester While he was still very young his father had further secured his fortunes by marrying him to the heiress who lived nearest to his mother's property of the Vatche and by the beautiful Sarah Selman daughter of the owner of Chalfont St Peter's and sister of Mrs Lefevre he had two sons Francis and Robert and an only daughter Anna Maria afterwards Mrs Bulkeley In the zenith of her youth and loveliness however Sarah Hare died very suddenly from eating ices when overheated at a ball and soon afterwards Robert married a second wife the rich Henrietta Henckel who pulled down Hurstmonceaux Castle She did this because she was jealous of the sons of her predecessor and wished to build a large new house which she persuaded her husband to settle upon her own children who were numerous though only two daughters lived to any great age But she was justly punished for when Robert Hare died it was discovered that the great house which Wyatt had built for Mrs Hare and which is now known as Hurstmonceaux Place was erected upon entailed land so that the house stripped of furniture and the property shorn of its most valuable farms passed to Francis Hare Naylor son of Miss Selman Mrs Henckel Hare lived on to a great age and when the burden of her years came on her she repented of her avarice and injustice and coming back to Hurstmonceaux in childish senility would wander round and round the castle ruins in the early morning and late evening
