Beyond the Silver Screen Mary Tomsic, 2017-10-16 Beyond the Silver Screen tells the history of women's engagement with filmmaking and film culture in twentieth century Australia. In doing so it explores an array of often hidden ways women in Australia have creatively worked with film. Beyond the Silver Screen examines film in a broad sense considering feature filmmaking alongside government documentaries and political films. It also focusses on women's work regulating films and supporting film culture through organising film societies and workshops to encourage female filmmakers. As such it tells a new narrative of Australian film history. Beyond the Silver Screen reveals the variety of roles film has in Australian society. It presents film as a medium of creative and political expression which women have engaged with in diverse ways throughout the twentieth century. Gender roles and gendered ideologies operating within society at large have influenced women's opportunities to work with film and how their filmwork is recognised. Beyond the Silver Screen shows women's sustained involvement with film is best understood as political and cultural action.

Thunder over the Desert Peter Mageros, 2025-04-25 Filmmakers and footsloggers. It's not often you hear these two words together but they perfectly capture the story of Australia's film industry revealed in this compelling book. Since the early 20th century Australia's local screen industry has fought a fierce battle against the overwhelming dominance of Hollywood striving to keep homegrown feature films on Australian cinema screens. This is a story of resilience and cultural pride where the struggles of the nation's filmmakers have been metaphorically aligned with the heroic narrative of the Anzac soldier. Much like the first Anzacs at Gallipoli heroes even in the face of devastating defeat Australia's cinema has a celebrated history of seeing itself as valiant even when the odds were stacked against it. Peter Mageros delves into the deep historical connections between myth and cinema exploring how filmmakers such as Longford Chauvel Weir and Beresford have drawn inspiration from the iconic images of the Diggers on screen The book reveals how the theme of the heroic film industry persists in contemporary times with Australian filmmakers portrayed as going into the trenches alongside the legendary soldiers This is a story of true heroism not always one of triumphant conquest but of unwavering determination to protect and preserve a uniquely Australian cinematic voice The Cinema of Australia and New Zealand Geoff Mayer, Keith Beattie, 2007 From The Story of the Kelly Gang in 1906 to the Lord of the Rings trilogy Australia and New Zealand have made a unique impact on international cinema This book celebrates the commercially successful narrative feature films produced by these cultures as well as key documentaries shorts and independent films It also invokes issues involving national identity race history and the ability of two small film cultures to survive the economic and cultural threat of Hollywood Chapters on well known films and directors such as The Year of Living Dangerously Peter Weir 1982 The Piano Jane Campion 1993 Fellowship of the Ring Peter Jackson 2001 and Rabbit Proof Fence Philip Noyce 2002 are included with less popular but equally important films and filmmakers such as Jedda Charles Chauvel 1955 They're a Weird Mob Michael Powell 1966 Vigil Vincent Ward 1984 and The Goddess of 1967 Clara Law 2000
