Athletic Shorts Chris Crutcher,2009-09-22 These six powerful short stories chronicle bits of the lives of characters major and minor who have walked the rugged terrain of Chris Crutcher s earlier works They also introduce some new and unforgettable personalities who may well be heard from again in future books As with all Crutcher s work these are stories about athletes and yet they are not sport stories They are tales of love and death bigotry and heroism of real people doing their best even when that best isn t very good Crutcher s straightforward style and total honesty have earned him an admiring audience and made readers of many nonreaders

Mom the Chemistry Professor Renée Cole,Cecilia Marzabadi,Gail Webster,Kimberly Woznick,2014-06-11 When is the right time How can I meet the demands of a professorship whilst caring for a young family Choosing to become a mother has a profound effect on the career path of women holding academic positions especially in the physical sciences Yet many women successfully manage to do both In this book 15 inspirational personal accounts describe the challenges and rewards of combining motherhood with an academic career in chemistry The authors are all women at different stages of their career and from a range of colleges in tenure and non tenure track positions Aimed at undergraduate and graduate students of chemistry these contributions serve as examples for women considering a career in academia but worry about how this can be balanced with other important aspects of life The authors describe how they overcame particular challenges but also highlight aspects of the systems which could be improved to accommodate women academics and particularly encourage more women to take on academic positions in the sciences

Learning from Latino Teachers Gilda Ochoa,2007-10-05 Learning from Latino Teachers offers insightful stories and powerful visions in the movement for equitable schools This compelling book is based on Gilda Ochoa's in depth interviews with Latina o teachers who have a range of teaching experience in schools with significant Latina o immigrant populations The book offers a unique insider's perspective on the educational challenges facing Latinas The teachers' stories offer valuable insights gained from their experiences coming up through the K-12 system as students and then becoming part of the same system as teachers No. 10 Main Street Peter Brodowski, 2024-03-01 A Novel of Suspense Growing Up Muslim Andrew C. Garrod, Robert Kilkenny, 2014-04-15 While 9/11 and its aftermath created a traumatic turning point for most of the writers in this book it is telling that none of their essays begin with that moment These young people were living probing and shifting their Muslim identities long before 9/11 I've heard it said that the second generation never asks the first about its story but nearly all the essays in this book include long intimate portrayals of Muslim family life often going back generations These young Muslims are constantly negotiating the differences between families for whom faith and culture were matters of honor and North America's youth culture with its emphasis on questioning exploring and inventing one's own destiny from the Introduction by Eboo Patel In Growing Up Muslim Andrew Garrod and Robert Kilkenny present fourteen personal essays by college students of the Muslim faith who are themselves immigrants or are the children of immigrants to the United States In their essays the students grapple with matters of ethnicity religious prejudice and misunderstanding and what is termed Islamophobia The fact of 9/11 and subsequent surveillance and suspicion of Islamic Americans particularly those hailing from the Middle East and the Asian Subcontinent have had a profound effect on these students their families and their communities of origin

Passion VS Parents: the game is on Hasina Saiyeda, 2019-09-15 She is intelligent meritorious and smart She likes music and wants to be a singer Her want becomes her dream where she must choose one Will she be able to choose her passion over her parents This is a story of an ordinary girl with an extraordinary passion of fulfilling her dream Let's see if she can do it because Life seems good until you start dreaming With dream comes strong tenacity And when that comes you can fight a long way to let's see where Nobody's Daughter Angel Novak, 2014-07 After being raised in a home filled with domestic violence mental illness addiction and alcoholism my sister who was my primary caretaker and rock committed suicide then 6 months later my daughter committed suicide in the middle of her own 13th birthday party Whirlwind of tragedy abuse pain and ultimately survival What It Takes to Make It Through ASR Suicide Studies Collective, 2021-08-17 When I am suicidal all rational thinking dissolves and black and white thinking prevails It's all or nothing everyone or no one never or forever There is no room for sometimes maybe or less than perfect Let's have a real conversation about suicide It reflects a tragic loss of hope It often raises more questions than can be answered It moves across time into generations So many are affected and their stories of raw experience are often hidden in the threads of stigma We want to amplify these voices We put out a public call inviting individuals who have been touched by suicide through contemplation attempt or loss to share their unfiltered personal journeys These stories were collected as part of the Storybook Project through the Arthur Sommer

Rotenberg ASR Suicide Depression Studies Program at St Michael's Hospital in Canada What It Takes to Make It Through published through the Storybook Project is a moving and inspiring collection of short stories about suicide and is accompanied by essays from practitioners in the field In connecting with these powerful stories of loss resilience and hope we invite you to shift your perceptions of suicide and be open to the struggle and grief of others 100% of the proceeds from this book will go to the ASR Program to support suicide research and education initiatives There is hope for you It doesn't have to be about saving the world although that's cool too and something you still like to think about It can just be about saving yourself That is enough You are enough You're still here and I'm glad Memories on Main Street Eliza

The Top Books of the Year My Mom Married The Principal The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. My Mom Married The Principal : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
