along with Frank O'Hara, John Ashbery and James Schuyler of the New York School of poets, avant-garde playwright and fiction writer, pioneer teacher of writing to children, Koch gave us some of the most exciting and aesthetically daring poems of his generation. These poems take sensuous delight in the life of the mind and the heart, often at the same time. O, what a physical effect it has on me. To dive forever into the light blue sea. Of your acquaintance. In Love with You. Here is Koch's early work: love poems like The Circus and To Marina, and such well-remembered comic masterpieces as Fresh Air, Some General Instructions and The Boiling Water. A serious moment for the water is when it boils. And here are the brilliant later poems: One Train May Hide Another, the deliciously autobiographical address in New Addresses, and the stately elegy Bel Canto, poems that beneath a surface of lightness and wit speak with passion, depth and seriousness to all the most important moments in one's existence. Charles Simic wrote in The New York Review of Books that for Koch, poetry has to be constantly saved from itself. The idea is to do something with language that has never been done before. In the ten exuberant, hilarious and heartbreaking books of poems collected here, Kenneth Koch does exactly that. Sun Out Kenneth Koch, 2012-07-25. Mr. Koch's poems have a natural voice; they are quick, alert, instinctive. He has vivacity and go, originality of perception and intoxication with life. Most important of all, he is not dull. Frank O'Hara, Poetry 1955. Gathered together for the first time, the exciting, startling early work of one of our finest poets. Writing as a young man in the 1950s, Koch, a member of the now famed New York School, along with John Ashbery, Larry Rivers, Frank O'Hara and others, experimented with the delicate balance between sound and sense to offer a series of poems resembling music or abstract painting. For example, he opens the title poem with Bananas, piers, limericks, I am, postures. Over there I am. The lakes of delectation. Sea, sea, you. Also included are a selection of short plays in verse and Koch's innovative masterpiece When the Sun Tries to Go On, a poem that produces a radical reworking of the life poem myth predominant in American poetics since Song of Myself. William Watkins, In the Process of Poetry. About When the Sun Tries to Go On, David Lehman wrote: Koch takes a great deal of delight in the sounds of words and his consciousness of them; he splashes them like paint on a page with enthusiastic puns, internal rhymes, titles of books, names of friends and seems surprised as we are at the often witty outcome. Poetry 1968. When the poems in Sun Out were originally published, they set a standard for the freshness and surprise of language used in extraordinary ways. For almost five decades, they have delighted readers lucky enough to find them. It is our pleasure to make them once again available in this new and provocative collection. The Albatross and Other Tales Anthony D. Farr, 2020-01-11. The Albatross and Other Tales is a collection of twelve short stories by Anthony D. Farr. With stories ranging from the fantastic to the real, readers will find stories grounded in small towns to stories taking place on planets in the farthest reaches of space.
