My Life As Emperor A Novel:

My Life as Emperor Su Tong, 2005-02-16 From the author of Rice and Raise the Red Lantern comes a story about a pampered and naive fourteen year old prince who after the sudden death of his father finds himself in the unlikely position of lord and ruler over an entire nation A boy of few talents and limited interests he grows drunk on his own power and delights in wielding an iron fist with his subjects Circumstances soon force him to venture beyond the palace walls and what he encounters there sets the stage for the events that ultimately shatter the young emperor and his empire Narrated in retrospect by the ex sovereign My Life as Emperor is a tale of cruelty and decadence of concubines and eunuchs of lethal sibling rivalries and intrigue My Life as Emperor is not only a glimpse into the soul of China it is a story of power and corruption BOOK JACKET My Life As Emperor *Exp* Nadeem Aslam, Tong S, 2005-08-01 Opening with a child's ascension to the throne of the Xie Empire Su Tong's latest novel is a historical tour de force Charting courtly life he vividly evokes many characters the concubines eunuchs advisers and protectors but it is the portrait and narration of the tale by the child emperor a boy of few talents who is suddenly thrust into a position of power which is most compelling Constantly facing a threat from the two step brothers who covet his position and unsure of the intentions of his mysterious grandmother Lady Huangfu his rule is characterised by fear incompetence and his own unchecked cruelty Can the child ruler gain a greater understanding of human existence and compassion and stave off the curse that haunts him or will his rule ultimately be recorded as one of slaughter decadence and failure An extraordinary and chilling dramatisation of the dark side of nation building Su Tong's latest novel is above all a brilliant exploration of the complexities and failings of human nature

Visions of Dystopia in China's New Historical Novels Jeffrey C. Kinkley, 2014-11-04 The depiction of personal and collective suffering in modern Chinese novels differs significantly from standard Communist accounts and most Eastern and Western historical narratives Writers such as Yu Hua Su Tong Wang Anyi Mo Yan Han Shaogong Ge Fei Li Rui and Zhang Wei scramble common conceptions of China's modern development deploying avant garde narrative techniques from Latin American and Euro American modernism to project a surprisingly un Chinese dystopian vision and critical view of human culture and ethics The epic narratives of modern Chinese fiction make rich use of magical realism surrealism and unusual treatments of historical time Also featuring graphic depictions of sex and violence and dark raunchy comedy these novels deeply reflect China's turbulent recent history re presenting the overthrow of the monarchy in the early twentieth century and the resulting chaos of revolution and war the recurring miseries perpetrated by class warfare during the dictatorship of Mao Zedong and the social dislocations caused by China's industrialization and rise as a global power This book casts China's highbrow historical novels from the 1990s to the mid 2000s as a distinctively Chinese contribution to the form of the global dystopian novel and consequently to global thinking about the interrelations of utopia and dystopia Contemporary Chinese Fiction by Su Tong and Yu Hua Hua Li, 2011-02-18 The book explores the coming of age fiction of two of the most critically acclaimed and frequently translated contemporary Chinese authors Yu Hua and Su Tong it is the first in depth book length treatise in English about the contemporary Chinese Bildungsroman Although various individual contemporary Chinese novelists and individual works of Chinese fiction have previously been discussed under the rubric of the Bildungsroman none of these efforts has approached the level of comprehensive and comparative analysis that this book brings to the genre and its social contexts in contemporary China This book will pique the interests not only of scholars and students of Chinese and comparative literature but also of historians and social scientists with an interest in the region ARTHUR CONAN
