BROWN,2011-10-11 Many of the vets I interviewed asked me why I was interested in World War II I never forgot when Pearl Harbor was attacked I was five years old and standing at the end of the kitchen counter next to the black art deco style radio The announcer was very loud and excited but I didn't know what he was talking about My mother was at the other end of the counter standing in front of the kitchen sink washing a dish All of a sudden she turned off the water and came over to stand in front of the radio I had never seen a look on her face like that before She called my dad to come here Both of them stood in front of the radio with these shocked and unbelieving faces I never forgot that experience We next went to Sunday school and church and I remember all of the adults were talking to each other in low tones with stunned looks on their faces

The History of the Jews of Richmond from 1769 to 1917 Herbert Tobias Ezekiel,Gaston Lichtenstein,1917 From the Jewish community of 1769 to that of 1917 is a far cry the one resident of colonial times to the lawyers doctors bankers artists merchant princes and artisans of today Success to a phenomenal degree has been theirs What they accomplished has been by virtue of their own brain and good right arm To penal and eleemosynary institutions they were practically strangers They have it is true figured in the criminal courts as the brightest of lawyers their escutcheons are often crossed with the bar sinister of a rope it is not pendant from a tree but a peddler's pack Of all the successful Jews In Richmond today there is not one of whom it can be truthfully said that he owes aught of it to pull Theirs has been the conquest of push The remarkable part is all this has been achieved by stress of energy alone They came to this country with only their good names their indomitable wills with the single purpose of life liberty and the pursuit of happiness and the right to practice their ancient faith as their consciences dictated Pg 11
