Painting and Private Life in Eleventh-century China Robert E. Harrist, Gonglin Li, 1998 In the eleventh century the focus of Chinese painting shifted dramatically The subject matter of most earlier works of art was drawn from a broadly shared heritage of political religious and literary themes Late in the century however a group of scholar artists began to make paintings that reflected the private experiences of their own lives Robert Harrist argues here that no work illuminates this development more vividly than Mountain Villa a handscroll by the renowned artist Li Gonglin ca 1041 1106 Through a detailed reading of the painting and an analysis of its place in the visual culture of Li s time the author offers a new explanation for the emergence of autobiographic content in Chinese art Harrist proposes that the subject of Li's painting his garden in the Longmian Mountains was itself a form of self representation since a garden was then considered a reflection of its owner's character and values. He demonstrates also that Li's turn toward the imagery of private life was inspired by the conventions of Chinese lyric poetry in which poets recorded and responded to the experiences of their lives. The book draws the reader into the artistic, scholarly and political world of Li Gonglin and shows the profound influence of Buddhism on Chinese painting and poetry. It offers important insights not just into Chinese art but also into Chinese literature and intellectual history.

in the Getty's Central Garden Jim Duggan, 2003 Plants in the Getty's Central Garden is Jim Duggan's sequel to the book Robert Irwin Getty Garden. Lawrence Weschler's account of the making of the Central Garden at the Getty Center in Los Angeles. Designed by contemporary artist Robert Irwin, this sculpture in the form of a garden, aspiring to be art, draws thousands of visitors each year. One of the key collaborators who helped Irwin realize his vision, Jim Duggan, is in his own words a hands on gardener. His knowledge and experience were invaluable as Irwin selected the plants that would make up the interwoven tapestry of the Central Garden. This colorful guide brings together informative descriptions of the growing habits and characteristics of nearly four hundred individual plants, with beautiful images by noted garden photographer Becky Cohen. Duggan provides suggestions for cultivating the plants, many of which will be unfamiliar to gardeners in Southern California. Also included in the book are a foreword by Robert Irwin, three essays by Duggan tracing his involvement with the project a map of the Central Garden a plant location guide and an index of scientific and common names
