David W. Cameron, 2023-08-02 With the Australian troops crossing of the Kumusi River in mid November 1942 after pushing the Japanese back along the Kokoda Track to the north coast of Papua New Guinea the time had come to face the entrenched Japanese at their beachheads at Gona Sanananda and Buna The Japanese were determined to fight to the last man in the defence of these critical positions The first beach to be captured by the Australians was Gona which fell on 9 December after bitter fighting This however was not the end of the fighting around this beachhead as just west of Gona on the opposite side of Gona Creek a larger Japanese Force had been landed which was intent on not only reinforcing Gona but also Sanananda and Buna both located east of Gona The fighting west of Gona Creek would be just as brutal and deadly as the fighting to take the Gona Beachhead Even so after this fighting Australian and American troops operating together for the first time in the Pacific War were still bogged down in the battles to take Sanananda and Buna the fighting at these beachheads would continue into January 1943 Heat and Light Ellen van Neerven, 2023-05-30 In this award winning work of fiction Ellen van Neerven leads readers on a journey that is mythical mystical and still achingly real Over three parts van Neerven takes traditional storytelling and gives it a unique contemporary twist In Heat we meet several generations of the Kresinger family and the legacy left by the mysterious Pearl In Water a futuristic world is imagined and the fate of a people threatened In Light familial ties are challenged and characters are caught between a desire for freedom and a sense of belonging Heat and Light is an intriguing collection that heralded the arrival of a major new talent in Australian writing Millionaire Castaway Dave Glasheen, Neil Bramwell, 2019-07-23 Dave Glasheen's life began spiralling out of control after he lost his family's vast fortune in the stock market crash of 1987. After a series of catastrophes he needed to take drastic measures to restore himself. Opting out of the rat race he cast himself away to a deserted island off the north east tip of Australia as far off the grid as was humanly possible. He has lived there ever since. One annual supermarket shop, a sketchy internet connection and enough ingredients for a home brew satisfy Dave's material needs. He catches fish, traps rainwater and cooks on an open fire. For company he tames dingoes, meets with friends from the Aboriginal community 40 kilometres away and entertains drop ins such as Russell Crowe sailing past on his honeymoon. Then there's Dave's running feud with Boxhead, an antisocial saltwater crocodile who just won't leave him in peace. Between heartbreak and hair-raising adventures, Dave has found happiness on Restoration Island. Brimming with humour, eccentricity and hard-earned wisdom, The Millionaire Castaway will give you a whole new view on life.

Wading In Amy Lemco, 2023-09-11 Wading In Desegregation on the Mississippi Gulf Coast frames the fight for beach and school desegregation within the history of Black life in Biloxi, beginning with the arrival of slave ships on the Gulf Coast islands in 1721. Detailing the buildup of Back of Town businesses, lynchings in the early 1900s and national and state legislation repressing Black progress, author Amy Lemco contextualizes the regional atmosphere. Dr Gilbert Mason, a resilient civic leader, humanitarian and lover of the water and his family encountered in 1955. Using extensive archival records and interviews with survivors, the book chronicles how Dr Mason inspired and helped organize local Black activists to peacefully protest the apartheid of Biloxi's beaches. Dr Mason operated under the surveillance of the State Sovereignty Commission, assaults by private citizens and the terrors of a decade riddled with the assassinations of civil rights workers. Grassroots efforts he led and inspired in Biloxi joined with the national movement to weaken the hold of white supremacy in the state.

With unwavering perseverance and bravery Dr Mason and fellow activists achieved the desegregation of Mississippi's beaches and made Harrison County schools the first primary school district in the state to integrate. Wading In firmly establishes Dr Mason as a national civil rights role model and presents the story of Mississippi's struggle to a new generation of readers.

After Before Time Robbi Neal, 2016-04-01 Stories of life from a remote Aboriginal community that sing with vivid and simple life truth and power. At the end of 2008 Robbi Neal and her family travelled to the other end of mainland Australia to a remote Aboriginal community. They planned to stay for twelve months. Seven years later they are still there. This moving collection of linked narratives centring around a remote Indigenous community has been inspired by real people and real events; the stories might read like fiction but they are based on fact. The events they describe really happened. Each story is true to the person who inspired it and Robbi has been given permission to share these truths by writing them down both by the person who influenced each story and by the Elders concerned. These stories sing with vivid and simple life truth and power. These are stories of shame, pain and sorrow but also joy and love and they transform our understanding of the Indigenous experience. The narratives tell familiar stories of dispossession, destitution, children being taken away, hopelessness and powerlessness but it tells them in a very different, direct, simple and powerfully moving way. Robbi Neal captures in a unique and compelling way the voices and histories of these people, their warmth, humour, wisdom and often their irrepressible joy. AFTER BEFORE TIME is profoundly fresh, powerful and moving. Reading After Before Time is a total heart experience. Be prepared to experience a whole gamut of feelings as there is no soft pedalling here. The characters disclose the depth of their anger, sadness, grief and pain directly and bluntly. But there is also great love, warmth and generosity of spirit towards each other and towards those whites who over the generations have loved and tried to help them. The book is rich with insights into customs, traditional beliefs, practices and culture and humorous observations of what the protagonists regard as absurd white behaviour and demands. Newtown Review of Books
