My Newfoundland:

Wise Women Phyllis Freeman, Jan Schmidt, 2013-12-02 Wise Women is a collection of autobiographical essays by important and renowned teachers at mid life. The essays which are deeply personal will focus on how these women negotiate the psychological, physical and social changes brought on by menopause and how the aging process affects their lives as professionals, feminists, writers, mentors and instructors in the academy. The book addresses such questions as the following: What challenges are left for the feminists who came of age during the women's movement and now have achieved academic success? How do women teachers experience their aging selves in the classroom? What legacy will mid life women leave their younger women colleagues? All of these questions as well as many others are covered in this insightful and groundbreaking work.

The Danger Tree David Macfarlane, 2001-04-01 Based on the stories of his mother's relatives, the Goodyears of Newfoundland, the author weaves the major events of the island throughout the 20th century into his own tale of the ill-starred fortunes of his family.

Canadian Sociologists in the First Person Stephen Harold Riggins, Neil McLaughlin, 2021-08-15 Social scientists' autobiographies can yield insight into personal commitments to research agendas and the very project of social science itself. But despite the long history of life writing, sociologists have tended to view the practice with skepticism. Canadian Sociologists in the First Person is the first book to survey the Canadian sociological imagination through personal recollections. Exploring the lives and experiences of twenty contributors from across the country, this book connects the unique and shared features of their careers to broad social dynamics while providing a guide to their own research and administrative contributions to their universities, their profession and their broader society and communities. The contributors, who teach in different types of institutions, are prominent in the discipline and in their specializations and represent significant and diverse intellectual currents, political perspectives and life and career experiences. Aiming to start a broad conversation about what social science and the academic profession look like in Canada from an insider's perspective, Canadian Sociologists in the First Person offers invaluable lessons for younger scholars as they envision a diverse sociological imagination for the twenty-first century.

Dundurn Performing Arts Library Bundle — Musicians Ezra Schabas, Lotfi Mansouri, Stuart Hamilton, James Neufeld, Robert Popple, Walter Pitman, Holly Higgins Jonas, Michelle Labrèche-Larouche, Carl Morey, 2013-12-17 This special twelve book bundle is a classical and choral music lover's delight. Canada's rich history and culture in the classical music arts is celebrated here both in the form of in-depth biographies and autobiographies: Lois Marshall, Lotfi Mansouri, Elmer Iseler, Emma Albani and more, but also in honour of musical places: There's Music in These Walls, a history of the Royal Conservatory of Music; In Their Own Words, a celebration of Canada's choirs; and Opera Viva, a history of the Canadian Opera Company. Canada plays an important role in the promotion and performance of art music and you can learn all about it in these fine
