competitive stage or race New and Collected Stories Alan Sillitoe, 2016-07-12 Over forty short stories spanning the career of England's most acclaimed postwar writer including the iconic The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner. This comprehensive collection of short fiction from bestselling British author Alan Sillitoe mixes aggression with humor and common working class men with extraordinary twists of fate. It compiles works selected from the master storyteller's bestselling books including The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner, The Ragman's Daughter, Guzman Go Home, Men Women and Children and The Second Chance. Several previously unpublished works are also included. In the title story from The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner which was adapted for film in 1962, a seventeen year old inmate in a juvenile detention center must make a difficult life choice: Should he strive to win the national long distance running competition as everyone is counting on him to do, or should he refuse to vindicate the very system and society that has locked him up? The titular piece from The Ragman's Daughter is a lively and poignant narrative about an eighteen year old thief named Tony and his new girlfriend Doris, the seventeen year old daughter of a well-to-do scrap dealer. The couple embarks on a wild robbery spree but after a raid on a shoe shop goes absurdly wrong, Tony ends up behind bars and Doris remains free but suffers a dark destiny. A standout tale from Guzman Go Home, Revenge details the dangerously tumultuous marriage between factory foreman Richard and his ornery wife Caroline. Mimic from the previously collected Men Women and Children takes place in the mind of a nameless hero who is locked away in an asylum, a man who uses the art of mimicry to escape reality and avoid being himself. And in No Name in the Street from The Second Chance, an ex-miner who ekes out a living collecting social security and hunting for golf balls moves in with a woman who has indoor plumbing but his dog refuses to go along with the plan. This essential collection reveals the power and timelessness of Sillitoe's short fiction. Called a master of the short story by the Times, the author portrays the complex ethos and pathos of working class life.

The Horses of My Life - Richard Dunwoody Richard Dunwoody, 2010-03-01 Richard Dunwoody was the most successful steeplechase jockey of his time. During his fantastic career he rode over 10,000 times, often partnering the top National Hunt horses such as Desert Orchid and Minnehoma. His staggering collection of 1,699 wins in Britain has earned him professional respect and a string of accolades including an MBE. In this fascinating book, Dunwoody remembers the great horses he has ridden and the high points of his remarkable career. In 1986 he rode to victory in the Grand National on West Tip and repeated this triumph in 1994 on Minnehoma. It was with One Man that he won two consecutive King George VI chases. Although his career was full of memorable partnerships and victories, it is for riding Desert Orchid that Dunwoody is best remembered. Dessie was a hugely popular horse; apart from Red Rum, he was the only racehorse with a fan club and the pair rode their way to a remarkable seven victories. Yet despite his big race victories, his determination and ambition remained constant, driving him on to even greater achievements. In a book full of stories, anecdotes and opinions, Richard tells not only of the glory surrounding his career but also of the hard work involved in achieving that glory, the struggle to ensure that both horse and rider were at their peak on race day the pitfalls and the setbacks endured and the quirks and characteristics of some of the finest horses in this tough sport
