My Reconstructed Life:

My Reconstructed Life Eugen Schoenfeld, 2005 DisCOKEnnected Mona E., 2006-04 Have you ever craved for a vacation from yourself a parenthesis in the steady stream of your life What does it take to lose it for a while to have your life interrupted We never cease to be who we are We just forget This is the story of a twenty something woman a self described perpetual optimist who moved to Los Angeles in search of her American Dream While successfully recovering from an unexpected back surgery she against all odds lets herself fall into that dark place that fails us all inside One by one she gives up on her promising career financial stability and independence for the instant gratification of artificial bliss that insatiable high DisCOKEnnected is about more than drug addiction it is a heartfelt incisive look at the struggle we all must overcome with our inner demons to ultimately reach spiritual happiness Blending humor and compassion it chronicles in a stream of consciousness style a woman s journey to self rediscovery It shows that only when we take ourselves apart can we see the pieces of ourselves An uplifting story about hope and the realization that everything we search for is always already inside us we merely become disconnected from it My Second Chance at Overcoming Life's Challenges Tena Cozby, 2022-01-25 My Second Chance at Overcoming Life s Challenges is a reflection of the many obstacles that I had to overcome in getting my life back from the changes challenges setbacks disappointments and failures that encephalitis brain surgery and cancer had brought Shadows in My Life Robert Gene Buckenmeyer, 2013 This book of poetry is best described by the authors own words I have couched my poetry as I see shadows and light essential to human perception and communication My admiration of one to the other led me to my poems of self reflection Becoming Muslim A. Mansson McGinty, 2006-10-02 While Islam has become a controversial topic in the West a growing number of Westerners find powerful meaning in Islam Becoming Muslim is an ethnographic study based on in depth interviews with Swedish and American women who have converted to Islam Landmarked Cherryl Walker, 2008-09-28 The year 2008 is the deadline set by President Mbeki for the finalization of all land claims by people who were dispossessed under the apartheid and previous white governments Although most experts agree this is an impossible deadline it does provide a significant political moment for reflection on the ANC government s program of land restitution since the end of apartheid Land reform and land restitution within that remains a highly charged issue in South Africa one that deserves more in depth analysis Drawing on her experience as Rural Land Claims Commissioner in KwaZulu Natal from 1995 to 2000 Professor Cherryl Walker provides a multilayered account of land reform in South Africa one that covers general critical commentary detailed case material and personal narrative She explores the master narrative of loss and restoration which has been fundamental in shaping the restitution program offers a critical overview of the achievements of the program as a whole and discusses what she calls the non programmatic limits to land reform including urbanization environmental constraints and the impact of HIV AIDS My Reconstructed Life Eugen Schoenfeld, Ph.d., 2015-10-16 This book is a socio autobiography of a young man born in a Jewish town at the foot hills of the Carpathian Mountains in 1925 to a devout Jewish family and his journey through the Holocaust toward academia in the United States This new edition also follows his story into retirement This book is the revelation and personal evolution of a boy born and steeped in orthodoxy who while retaining the essence of the values into which he inducted sought at the same time to re interpret his original values and ideals He takes this orthodox particularism and seeks to reconstruct it to become a universalist view of mankind This book is also a description of his effort to reconstruct his life which had been destroyed by Hitler s effort to make the world Jew free In the camps he lost most of his family upon which the foundation of his early life was built After the war finding himself alone he had to revise his plans for the future and was forced to find his way alone in another world and another way of life He seeks to overcome obstacles and rebuild his life while also finding a niche for himself in a new post Holocaust world Eugen Schoenfeld shares with his readers the hardships he endured both in the camps and after liberation of hunger and loneliness and separation from his father living behind the Iron Curtain He invites his readers to share the various choices he had to make to understand the reasons for his decisions in the process of re constructing his life He explores the paths he had to follow in order to achieve his goal of understanding finding the answers to the question he asked his father on the first day in Aushwitz Birkenau How is possible that now in the midst of the twentieth century after all the great achievements in philosophy psychology and theology man is still inhumane This book is his search for a way through which human beings can reconstruct themselves can cease living merely as human beings and evolving into humane beings
