Keetsahnak / Our Missing and Murdered Indigenous Sisters Kim Anderson, Maria Campbell, Christi Belcourt, 2018-06-04

In Keetsahnak Our Murdered and Missing Indigenous Sisters the tension between personal political and public action is brought home starkly as the contributors look at the roots of violence and how it diminishes life for all. Together they create a model for anti violence work from an Indigenous perspective. They acknowledge the destruction wrought by colonial violence and also look at controversial topics such as lateral violence challenges in working with tradition and problematic notions involved in helping. Through stories of resilience resistance and activism the editors give voice to powerful personal testimony and allow for the creation of knowledge. It's in all of our best interests to take on gender violence as a core resurgence project a core decolonization project a core of Indigenous nation building and as the backbone of any Indigenous mobilization.
