My Soul Looks Back Journeys In Faith:

My Soul Looks Back James H. Cone, 1986 What is the relationship James Cone asks between my training as a theologian and the black struggle for freedom For what reason has God allowed a poor black boy from Bearden to become a professional systematic theologian As I struggled with these questions I could not escape the overwhelming conviction that God's spirit was calling me to do what I could for the enhancement of justice in the world especially on behalf of my people My Soul Looks Back chronicles the author's grappling with these questions as well as his formulation of an answer an answer that would lead to the development of a black theology of liberation Firmly rooted in the black church tradition James Cone relates the formative features of his faith journey from his childhood experience in Bearden Arkansas and his father's steadfast resistance to racism through racial discrimination in graduate school to his controversial articulation of a faith that seeks to break the shackles of racial oppression In describing his more recent encounters with feminist Marxist and Third World thinkers James Cone provides a compelling description of liberation theology and a vivid portrayal of what it means to profess a faith that does justice Back cover Baring My Soul - A Journey of Faith Julie Roberts, 2004 Ten days after one's son has been killed may seem to be a strange time to start writing a book It is a time of raw emotion and intense pain but for the author this was combined with an unyielding feeling that there was a story to be told This is the true story of a life unfolding of events coming together in the most unlikely ways and an increasing awareness of God in everyday life The situations encountered illness redundancy a new career and a tragic bereavement light the way of a spiritual path and invite readers to consider their own spiritual journey The disappointments the insights and the grief are shared with readers in a compelling book which written from the heart offers hope and inspiration to anyone facing the challenges of life My Soul Looks Back in Wonder Juan Williams, 2005 One of the most pivotal moments in American history is brought to light through stirring thought provoking eyewitness accounts from people who have played active roles in the civil rights movement over the past 50 years My Soul Look Back in Wonder Geneva Napoleon Smitherman, 2022-01-31 This is the story of Dr Geneva Smitherman aka Dr G the pioneering linguist often referred to as the Queen of Black Language In a series of narrative essays Dr G writes eloquently and powerfully about the role of language in social transformation and the academic intellectual linguistic and societal debates that shaped her groundbreaking work as a Black Studies O G and a Womanist scholar activist of African American Language These eleven essays narrate the development of Dr G's race gender class and linguistic consciousness as a member of the Black Power Generation of the 1960s and 70s In My Soul Look Back In Wonder Dr G links the personal to the professional and the political situating the struggles and successes of a Black woman in the Academy within the historical experiences and development of her people As Dr G enters her eighth decade in this Black Lives Matter historical moment she seeks to share the meaning and purpose of a life of study and struggle and its significance for all those who seek racial and social justice today Handbook on Postconservative Theological Interpretation Ronald T.

Michener, Mark A. Lamport, 2024-10-24 Postconservative theology may be said to parallel with postliberal theology at its best Orthodox biblical but open to new insights about how to interpret Scripture But the new insights must be faithful as well as fresh Postconservative theology is not the same as progressive theology which tends to lean toward indeterminant faith expressions whereas postconservative allows for particular faith commitments and expressions but understands that the constructive task of theology is never finished Authors emphasize various interpretive theological lenses used for doing theology among various postconservative theologians rather than emphasizing the philosophical background to hermeneutical theory present in other works such as past influential thinkers including Gadamer Grondin Ricoeur Heidegger etc This resource could also function as a companion to Evangelical Theological Method Five Views 2018 This emphasis of the chapters will not be on the nuts and bolts of how to interpret but rather on the theological impulses that govern various lenses Bible cultural context etc for doing theology and the way Scripture functions with respect to the practice of interpretation

The Divided Mind of the Black Church Raphael G Warnock, 2013-12-06 An altar call to action from the U S senator and senior pastor at Atlanta s Ebenezer Baptist Church Publishers Weekly What is the true nature and mission of the church Is its proper Christian purpose to save souls or to transform the social order This question is especially fraught when the church is one built by an enslaved people and formed from its beginning at the center of an oppressed community s fight for personhood and freedom Such is the central tension in the identity and mission of the Black church in the United States For decades the Black church and Black theology have held each other at arm s length Black theology has emphasized the role of Christian faith in addressing racism and other forms of oppression arguing that Jesus urged his disciples to seek the freedom of all peoples Meanwhile the Black church even when focused on social concerns has often emphasized personal piety rather than social protest With the rising influence of white evangelicalism biblical fundamentalism and the prosperity gospel the divide has become even more pronounced This book traces the historical significance of the rise and development of Black theology as an important conversation partner for the Black church Calling for honest dialogue between Black and womanist theologians and Black pastors this fresh theological treatment demands a new look at the church s essential mission An informative work for historians theologians and humanities scholars interested in debating what the Black Church needs to be doing in the 21st century Journal of African American History As a person who is not Black reading this book provided a learning experience for me I could also see this book serving as a way to spark discussion involving all ethnic groups as to how we can all as fellow Christians blend the goals of saving lost people and moving the culture toward equality for everyone Ministry Well written and meticulously researched The Christian Century

Voices in the Wilderness John L. Thomas Jr.,2018-01-30 FINALLY a scholarly description of the development of Black preaching in the United States that is accessible to the average reader but also contributes to the academic conversation about both style and theological content Written from the perspective of a seasoned practitioner and tenured practical theologian Thomas surveys Black preaching as it has responded to various social and historical time periods Starting with the brutality of chattel slavery early formations in segregated Southern life rapid migration to and urbanization in Northern cities and various events throughout the post civil rights era the book gives convincing details and examples of how the Black preacher helped to guide and sustain the masses of African American people through the wilderness of social change At the heart of the book three prime examples are presented as models of the real genius of Black preaching The reader will never again think about Reverend Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X and the Reverend Jesse Jackson in the same way A special chapter is devoted to the contributions of Black women preachers along with a closing chapter that makes new proposals for the future The book is a provocative and critical analysis of why Black preaching still matters Pastoral Care Dr. Karen D. Scheib,2016-02-16 Christian pastoral care is a narrative ecclesial theological practice NET As a narrative practice pastoral care attends to the inseparable interconnection between our own lifestories others stories the larger cultural stories and God s story As a ministry of the church pastoral care is an ecclesial practice that derives its motivation purpose and identity from the larger mission of the church to bear witness to and embody God s mission of love that extends beyond the church for the transformation of the world As a theological practice pastoral care is grounded in God s love story God s profound love for humankind heals our brokenness when human love fails and invites us into an ongoing process of growth in love of God self and neighbor Intended for those who provide care with and on behalf of religious communities author Karen Scheib focuses on listening and restorying practices occurring in the context and setting of congregations By coauthoring narratives that promote healing and growth in love pastoral caregivers become cocreators and companions who help others revise and construct life stories reshaped by the grace of God What Karen Scheib has done in this book is to reposition pastoral care as a theological activity performed in the context of the church She draws deeply upon her Wesleyan theological heritage upon an understanding of life in its fullness as growth in love and grace and upon a communion ecclesiology undergirded by a communal understanding of the Trinitarian life of God Thus grounded she envisions pastoral care first as a rhythm of the life of the whole church and secondarily as a work of trained pastors In her vision pastoral care is rescued from a narrow understanding of it as exceptional acts of intervention performed only in moments of dire crisis Instead it becomes a daily practice of pastoral care an attending in love to the stories of others and a listening for ways God is already present in a life story Solidly theological grounded in the life of the church and eminently teachable Karen Scheib has given us a great gift in this book from the Foreword Thomas G Long Bandy Professor of Preaching Emeritus Candler School of Theology Emory University Atlanta GA In a wonderfully engaging reflective and useful way Karen Scheib captures something absolutely essential to pastoral care and yet often overlooked the utter centrality of storytelling listening the power of stories to heal and their vital connection to bigger stories told within religious communities This book is a real milestone reclaiming the importance of narrative knowing and grounding care not only in community but also within a comprehensive theological framework Bonnie J Miller McLemore E Rhodes and Leona B Carpenter Professor of Religion Psychology and Culture The Divinity School and Graduate Department of Religion Vanderbilt University Divinity School Nashville TN Implementing narrative personality and therapy theories and anchored in ecclesiology and Wesleyan theology NET Karen Scheib's book advances a long awaited and holistic approach to pastoral care Her NET approach presents the embodiment of pastoral care by emphasizing both narrative and paradigmatic knowing proposes the subjectivity of our stories in pastoral care by pointing out the interchangeability between us and our stories as subject and object and underscores the dynamic process of pastoral care through the interconnection of the storyteller listener and context Scheib's image of story companion contributes to the field as a new paradigm of pastoral care and promises to be a significant resource in generating hope and growth in love for both pastoral caregiver and receiver Angella Son Associate Professor Drew University Madison NJ Pastoral theologian Scheib describes a narrative ecclesial and theological approach for listening to people's life stories in such a way as to engender spiritual formation and growth in love Scheib clarifies the connections between caring conversations and Christian theology Clear and accessible prose as well as helpful exercises and discussion starters make this a fine teaching text The Christian Century Sept 29 2016

Journey to Faith Doug Hammer, 2024-07-19 Over forty days and forty nights Doug brings us alongside him as he relives the extreme highs and lows spiritually as he desperately reaches out to God as he fasts knowing that this was to be his last chance to change his life around For years he had tried everything there was to reach out to God and to find favor in His heart never realizing that the answer was there all along right in front of him in the perfect words of the Holy Bible Stripped down to literally nothing but a few worldly possessions broke divorced rejected by his daughter and standing all alone in a world that cared nothing about him Doug thought that this was as good as it was going to get He was to be the world's punching bag for all the winners in life and was resigned to the reality that he was to be the loser everyone else would walk on to get what they wanted. Little did he realize that in all the hurt, frustration, and hopelessness, God was forcing him to take the only road left to him: fasting. God's thundering velvet hand was rebuilding him on His terms to be the spiritual warrior that he was always meant to be, and whether Doug liked it or not, God was going to reach into his heart and pull him into a relationship that fifty-seven years of suffering and hurt could never stand up to. God locked onto Doug, and no matter how hard Satan attacked or Doug felt beaten, God was there to pick him up and brush him off like a loving father with an unconditional love only a dad could give to his son. In all of his desperate pleas to God for help, Doug was being held at arm's length by God until he realized that what his Father in heaven was demanding of him was not perfection but a relationship built on love and faith. God's hand was now locked on to Doug, and as painful as life was in every facet of his being, it was now as clear as the words of the Bible: God had Doug right where He wanted him, and there would be no more yesterdays of pain and failure but now a life drawn deep into God's heart, and there's no looking back.

No Shame in Wesley's Gospel Edward P. Wimberly, 2011-05-01 As an African American who was a senior pastor in both white and black churches between 1966 and 1974, Edward Wimberly encountered shame as the feeling of being unloved and being unlovable primarily when his parishioners and counselees experienced a loss of a loved one. Grief was the dominant psychological category for talking about loss in those days, and the feeling of shame of being abandoned and resulting in feelings of being unloved were described as temporary. However, in the middle 1980s, pastoral theologians began to recognize shame as a dominant psychological and spiritual long-lasting experience that needed to be addressed. Thus, pastoral counselors and pastoral theologians began to explore psychological object relations theory, self psychology, and the psychology of shame to understand the persistence of the experience of shame. Today, shame as the feeling of being unloved and unlovable is a major experience of many modern people given the nature of the loss of relational connections and close-knit communities. Many psychologies are surfacing, focusing on cultural narcissism or selfish love, the cult of self-admiration, which is replacing self-actualization and the equating of wealth and social status with being loved. Growing up in the Methodist tradition in an African American church, Wimberly was sensitized to John Wesley's small group experience, hearing about the class meetings. Moreover, he had been exposed to the use of small groups in Zimbabwe, Africa, in 1998, based on African Methodists' attempts to recover the village, which was disappearing on account of technology, industrialization, and the colonialism's destruction of the family. Thus, based on the author's family of origin community's fascination with Wesley's small group and witnessing this same phenomenon in Africa, Wimberly decided to explore Wesley's cell group practical theology for its contribution to twenty-first-century ministry to people who could be classified as relational refugees.
