Readings In African Humanities African Cultural Development:

African Cultural Development Ogbu Kalu,1978 African Cultural Development Ogbu U. Kalu,1978 Readings in African Humanities Ogbu Kalu,2002 A collection of essays concerned with the unity and purpose of human knowledge and culture in an African setting The volume contains Chinua Achebe's essay Commitment and the African Writer in which he discusses the development in African literature through the poetry of Equiano Senghor and David Diop and compares attitudes of African and European writers to committed literature and commitment as disenchantment and self criticism in the post colonial period There are other notable essays on philosophy and languages Towards an African Philosophy addresses individual and cultural and European and African approaches to philosophy and attitudes towards moral questions in an African culture and another contributor examines the role and status of African languages in intellectual activity and scientific discourse Other subjects broached by individual writers are archaeology and the reconstruction of African heritage music and dance and the contribution of education and information to development and urbanisation African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Martin,Gaston Jean-Marie Kaboré,2023-08-08 Challenging established views and assumptions about traditions and practices of filmmaking in the African diaspora this three volume set offers readers a researched critique on black film Volume One of this landmark series on African cinema draws together foundational scholarship on its history and evolution Beginning with the ideological project of colonial film to legitimize the economic exploitation and cultural hegemony of the African continent during imperial rule to its counter historical formation and theorization It comprises essays by film scholars and filmmakers alike among them Roy Armes Med Hondo Frid Boughedir Haile Gerima Oliver Barlet Teshome Gabriel and David Murphy including three distinct dossiers a timeline of key dates in the history of African cinema a comprehensive chronicle and account of the contributions by African women in cinema and a homage and overview of Ousmane Semb ne the Father of African cinema African Theocology Ebenezer Yaw Blas,2020-02-27 There is probably no set of issues of greater importance in the contemporary world than those that are to do with the Earth on which we live and depend The more alienated we become from it the more we contribute to our own destruction Christianity's complicity in this destruction is well documented and hotly debated Africa can ill afford to fall into the same trap that Western Christianity has in this regard One senses the urgency of these concerns in Blas's African Theocology Studies in African Religious Creation Care Extremely well informed in the field Blas not only draws on the three major religions in Africa Christianity Islam and African traditional religion but demonstrates familiarity with the most important recent contributions in the field from Western scholarship With its emphasis on pedagogics African Theocology will play a seminal role in the construction of curricula for an African Christian theology of the environment and is sure to be an essential contribution to all libraries in institutions of higher learning Reading in African Humanities Ogbu Uke Kalu,2002 Daily Life in Colonial Africa Toyin Falola,2024-07-11 Discover how European colonization across the many regions in Africa dramatically altered the continent and the daily lived experiences of its peoples Daily Life in Colonial Africa explores nine facets of daily life in the European colonized African continent such as domestic economic political and religious life Examples of everyday people farmers forced to switch to cash crops people of faith melding native traditions and European Christian doctrine on beliefs about the afterlife storytellers using allegory to discreetly challenge colonial rule show how colonialization impacted every aspect of life for Africa s indigenous people as well as how they adapted to new ways of life while maintaining their cultural roots Alongside the main text helpful additional resources such as a timeline of the colonization of Africa and a glossary of terms provide useful context for understanding what life in this period of history was truly like for the many different people and groups affected by Africa s colonization

African Psychology Augustine Nwoye,2022 One of the most unprecedented developments in the history of the scientific study of psychology in postcolonial Africa is the recent welcome inclusion of the study of African psychology within the psychology degree curriculum of some foreword thinking African universities In each of those universities such as the University of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa and Kenyatta University in Nairobi Kenya East Africa there now exists a gradual entrenchment of the African derived psychology in the curricular provisions of their psychology degree programmes With particular reference to the University of KwaZulu Natal in South Africa for instance a number of African psychology based modules have recently been developed approved and incorporated into the list of modules for psychology degree students at the undergraduate Honours and the Master s degree levels see University of KwaZulu Natal College of Humanities Handbook 2018

African Philosophy and the Hermeneutics of Culture Theophilus Okere,2005 The Series Studies in African Philosophy is a forum for the publication and wider dissemination of researches and reflections of value on all aspects of African philosophy While recognising the special advantage of interdisciplinary approach in modern scholarship it retains a special predilection for works that have special African philosophic import Although Theophilus Okere s book African Philosophy has made remarkable impact on African philosophical scholarship many may not be aware of the way he tried to apply his preferred method to other areas of the philosophical investigation in Africa and to overcome the risk of relativism through the promotion of intercultural dialogue in philosophy The essays published in this volume bear testimony to the multivalent character of Okere s contribution to African philosophy Most of the essays are about Okere s hermeneutics of culture Some of the authors examine the method in itself while others focus attention on its application to specific philosophical themes
