Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 Poetics of Love in the Arabic Novel Wen-chin Ouyang, 2012-06-20 Considers the Arabic novel within the triangle of the nation state modernity and tradition The novel is now a major genre in the Arabic literary field this book explores the development of the novel especially the ways in which the genre engages with a Other Others Steven Shankman, 2011-01-02 In literary and cultural studies today the term the Other appears to have largely lost its moorings in the primacy of the intersubjective encounter focusing rather on the social construction of the Other For Emmanuel Levinas in contrast the Other is precisely that which eludes construction and categorization In a study that ranges from literature of ancient China Greece and Israel to modern Egypt Italy West Africa and America Steven Shankman tests Levinas's ideas by reading literary works from outside the Judeo-Christian orbit for figurations equivalent to Levinas's notion of the Other He also places ethics at the center of intercultural or in his words transcultural comparative literature In contemporary literary and cultural studies it is often assumed that culture has the last word However as Levinas insists and as Shankman argues throughout this book it is ethics that is the presupposition of all Culture that is situated before Culture
