When Texas Prison Scams Religion
Michael G. Maness, 2023-05-22 When Texas Prison Scams Religion exposes corruption in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice especially in the abuse of religion In many ways this book is a literature review of 1 800 plus works that defends freedom of conscience in prison while exposing the unconstitutionality of the seminary program that buys faith with favor from prisoners The state veritably ordains the prisoner a Field Minister that represents the offices of the Governor TDCJ Director and wardens throughout the prison Therein TDCJ lies about neutrality in a program all about Christian missions and lies again in falsely certifying elementary Bible students as counselors Why is the director sponsoring psychopaths counseling psychopaths In fact TDCJ pays 314 million a year to UTMB for psychiatric care and receives not a single report of the care given and worse for UTMB generates no reports itself The underbelly TDCJ's executive culture of cover up is exposed TDCJ has hired the lowest qualified of the applicant pool many times in the last 25 years and regularly destroys statistics on violence TDCJ Dir Collier led the prison to model Louisiana Warden Burl Cain the most scandal ridden in penal history according to a host of published news stories for 20 years Therein Collier led TDCJ to favor the smallest segment of religious society within Evangelical Dominionism Texas has no business endorsing the truth of any religion over another We large chain bookstores the religion section is gone and in its place is an expanding number of topics including angels Sufism journey recovery meditation magic inspiration Judaica astrology gurus Bible prophecy evangelicalism Mary Buddhism Catholicism and esoterica As Wade Clark Roof notes such changes over the last two decades reflect a shift away from religion as traditionally understood to more diverse and creative approaches But what does this splintering of the religious perspective say about Americans Have we become more interested in spiritual concerns or have we become lost among trends Do we value personal spirituality over traditional religion and no longer see ourselves united in a larger community of faith Roof first credited this religious diversity to the baby boomers in his bestselling A Generation of Seekers 1993 He returns to interview many of these people now in mid life to reveal a generation with a unique set of spiritual values a generation that has altered our historic interpretations of religious beliefs practices and symbols and perhaps even our understanding of the sacred itself The quest culture created by the baby boomers has generated a marketplace of new spiritual beliefs and practices and of revisited traditions As Roof shows some Americans are exploring faiths and spiritual disciplines for the first time others are rediscovering their lost traditions others are drawn to small groups and alternative communities and still others create their own mix of values and metaphysical beliefs Spiritual Marketplace charts the emergence of five subcultures dogmatists born again Christians mainstream believers metaphysical believers and seekers and secularists Drawing on surveys and in depth interviews for over a decade Roof reports on the religious and spiritual styles family patterns and moral vision and values for each of these subcultures The result is an innovative engaging approach to understanding how religious life is being reshaped as we move into the next century
