selection of papers delivered in the course of a seminar 1994-95 and its concluding international symposium at the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton The common theme is the interrelation between magic and religion focussing particularly on the Mediterranean world in Antiquity Egyptian Graeco Roman and Jewish beliefs and customs but also treating the early modern period in Northern Europe the Netherlands and Germany as well as offering more general reflections on elements of magic in language and Jewish mysticism The volume is characterized by an interdisciplinary approach and the use of varied methodologies emphasizing the dynamic nature of the often contradictory forces shaping religious beliefs and practices while dismissing the idea of a linear development from magic to religion or vice versa The contributors are outstanding scholars in their fields Ancient Medieval and Modern History Religious Studies Jewish Studies Classical Studies Early Christianity Islamic Studies Anthropology Egyptology and Comparative Literature Without a doubt this re-evaluation of a fascinating age old subject will stimulate scholarly discussion and appeal to educated non-specialist readers as well The Cambridge

History of Magic and Witchcraft in the West David J. Collins, S. J., 2015-03-02 This book presents twenty chapters by experts in their fields providing a thorough and interdisciplinary overview of the theory and practice of magic in the West Its chronological scope extends from the Ancient Near East to twenty first century North America its objects of analysis range from Persian curse tablets to US neo paganism For comparative purposes the volume includes chapters on developments in the Jewish and Muslim worlds evaluated not simply for what they contributed at various points to European notions of magic but also as models of alternative development in ancient Mediterranean legacy Similarly the volume highlights the transformative and challenging encounters of Europeans with non Europeans regarding the practice of magic in both early modern colonization and more recent decolonization

Hasidism Beyond Modernity Naftali Loewenthal, 2019-12-18 The Habad school of hasidism is distinguished today from other hasidic groups by its famous emphasis on outreach on messianism and on empowering women Hasidism Beyond Modernity provides a critical thematic study of the movement from its beginnings showing how its unusual qualities evolved Topics investigated include the theoretical underpinning of the outreach ethos the turn towards women in the twentieth century new attitudes to non Jews the role of the individual in the hasidic collective spiritual contemplation in the context of modernity the quest for inclusivism in the face of prevailing schismatic processes messianism in both spiritual and political forms and the direction of the movement after the passing of its seventh rebbe Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson in 1994 Attention is given to many contrasts pre modern modern and postmodern conceptions of Judaism the clash between maintaining an enclave and outreach models of Jewish society particularist and universalist trends and the subtle interplay of mystical faith and rationality Some of the chapters are new others published in an earlier form have been updated to take account of recent scholarship This book presents an in depth study of an intriguing movement which takes traditional hasidism beyond modernity

Esoteric Transfers and Constructions Mark Sedgwick, Francesco Piraino, 2021-02-27 Similarities between esoteric and mystical currents in different religious traditions have long interested scholars This book takes a new look at the relationship between such currents It advances a discussion that started with the search for religious essences archetypes and universals from William James to Erans The universal categories that resulted from that search were later criticized as essentialist constructions and questioned by deconstructionists An alternative explanation was advanced by diffusionists that there were transfers between different traditions This book presents empirical case studies of such constructions and of transfers between Judaism Christianity and Islam in the premodern period and Judaism Christianity and Western esotericism in the modern period It shows that there were indeed transfers that can be clearly documented and that there were also indeed constructions often very imaginative It also shows that there were many cases that were neither transfers nor constructions but a mixture of the two

The Mechanics of Providence Michael D. Swartz, 2018-10-29 The phenomena we call magic and mysticism had a profound effect on the shaping of Judaism in late antiquity In this volume Michael D Swartz offers a wide ranging study of the purposes world views ritual dynamics literary forms and social settings of ancient Jewish magic and mysticism and their function in religion and history Based on the author s studies over the past few decades he proposes innovative methods for the study of these two phenomena The author focuses especially on the rituals of early Jewish magic and mysticism their social contexts and the textual dimension of this complex literature He also offers introductions to these phenomena Michael D Swartz argues that the authors of these texts employed intricate technologies literary and artistic forms and physical practices to negotiate between the values and world views of their cultures and the texture of everyday life Trithemius and Magical Theology Noel L. Meyer,2002 This volume contains a series of provocative essays that explore expressions of magic and ritual power in the ancient world The strength of the present volume lies in the breadth of scholarly approaches represented The book begins with several papyrological studies presenting important new texts in Greek and Coptic continuing with essays focussing on taxonomy and definition The concluding essays apply contemporary theories to analyses of specific test cases in a broad variety of ancient Mediterranean cultures Paul Mirecki Th D 1986 in Religious Studies Harvard Divinity School is Associate Professor of Religious Studies at the University of Kansas Marvin Meyer Ph D 1979 in Religion Claremont Graduate School is Professor of Religion at Chapman University Orange California and Director of the Coptic Magical Texts Project of the Institute for Antiquity and Christianity Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic David Frankfurter,2019-03-19 In the midst of academic debates about the utility of the term magic and the cultural meaning of ancient words like mageia or khesheph this Guide to the Study of Ancient Magic seeks to advance the discussion by separating out three topics essential to the very idea of magic The three major sections of this volume address 1 indigenous terminologies for ambiguous or illicit ritual in antiquity 2 the ancient texts manuals and artifacts commonly designated magical or used to represent ancient magic and 3 a series of contexts from the written word to materiality itself to which the term magic might usefully pertain The individual essays in this volume cover most of Mediterranean and Near Eastern antiquity with essays by both established and emergent scholars of ancient religions In a burgeoning field of magic studies trying both to preserve and to justify critically the category itself this volume brings new clarity and provocative insights This will be an indispensable resource to all interested in magic in the Bible and the Ancient Near East ancient Greece and Rome Early Christianity and Judaism Egypt through the Christian period and also comparative and critical theory Contributors are Magali Bailliot Gideon Bohak Vronique Dasen Albert de Jong Jacco Dieleman Esther Eidinow David Frankfurter Fritz Graf Yuval Harari Naomi Janowitz Sarah Iles Johnston Roy D Kotansky Arpad M Nagy Daniel Schwemer Joseph E Sanzo Jacques van der Vliet Andrew Wilburn Naming the Witch Kimberly B. Stratton,2022-05-03 Kimberly B Stratton investigates the cultural and ideological motivations behind early imaginings of the magician the sorceress and the witch in the ancient world Accusations of magic could carry the death penalty or at the very least marginalize the person or group they targeted But Stratton moves beyond the popular view of these accusations as mere slander In her view representations and accusations of sorcery mirror the complex struggle of ancient societies to define authority legitimacy and Otherness Stratton argues that the concept magic first emerged as a discourse in ancient Athens where it operated part and parcel of the struggle to define Greek identity in opposition to the uncivilized barbarian following the Persian Wars The idea of magic then spread throughout the Hellenized world and Rome reflecting and adapting to political forces values and social concerns in each society Stratton considers the portrayal of witches and magicians in the literature of four related periods and cultures classical Athens early imperial Rome pre Constantine Christianity and rabbinic Judaism She compares patterns in their representations of magic and analyzes the relationship between these stereotypes and the social factors that shaped them Stratton s comparative approach illuminates the degree to which magic was and still is a cultural construct that depended upon and reflected particular social contexts Unlike most previous studies of magic which treated the classical world separately from antique Judaism Naming the Witch highlights the degree to which these ancient cultures shared ideas about power and legitimate authority even while constructing and deploying those ideas in different ways The book also interrogates the common association of women with magic denaturalizing the gendered stereotype in the process Drawing on Michel Foucault s notion of discourse as well as the work of other contemporary theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Bruce Lincoln Stratton s bewitching study presents a more nuanced ideologically sensitive approach to understanding the witch in Western history
