Religious Transformation in South Asia Christopher Harding,2008-09-18 Exploring the phenomenon of mass conversion to Christianity amongst oppressed rural peoples in late colonial India Religious Transformation in South Asia looks at what lay behind the social and religious aspirations of converts and mission personnel Susan Billington Harper, This book presents the only critical study of the public life and legacy of V S Azariah 1874 1945 the first Indian bishop of an Anglican diocese and the most successful leader of rural conversion movements to Christianity in modern India Harper carefully explores Bishop Azariah s work including his attempts to redress racism and improve social conditions in India and documents for the first time anywhere the previously unknown controversy between Bishop Azariah and the great Mahatma Gandhi Religious Freedom in India Goldie Osuri,2013 Drawing on the critical and theoretical concepts of sovereignty biopolitics and necropolitics this book examines how a normative liberal and secular understanding of India s religious identity is translatable by Hindu nationalists into discrimination and violence against minoritized religious communities Extending these concepts to an analysis of historical political and legal genealogies of conversion the author demonstrates how a concern for sovereignty links past and present anti conversion campaigns and laws The book illustrates how sovereignty informs the making of secularism as well as religious difference The focus on sovereignty sheds light on the manner in which religious difference becomes a point of reference for the religio secular idioms of Bombay cinema for legal judgements on communal violence for human rights organizations and those seeking justice for communal violence This wide ranging examination and discussion of the trajectories of anti conversion politics through historical legal philosophical popular cultural archival and ethnographic material offers a cogent argument for shifting the stakes and rethinking the relationship between sovereignty and religious freedom The book is a timely contribution to broader theoretical and political discussions of post secularism and human rights and is of interest to students and scholars of postcolonial studies cultural studies law and religious studies

Research Handbook on Law, Movements and Social Change Steven A. Boutcher, Corey S. Shdaimah, Michael W. Yarbrough, 2023-07-01 The study of law and social movements provides an ideal lens for rethinking fundamental questions about the relationship between law and power This Research Handbook takes up that challenge framing a new more global dynamic reflexive and contextualised phase of social movement studies

A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling, 2020 In this first in depth and wide ranging history of Christian conversion David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach and engaging recent methods and theories in conversion studies the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity's expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Although conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming when examined over two millennia it emerges as a phenomenon far more complex than any one dimensional profile would suggest

Religious Conversion Sarah Claerhout, Jakob De Roover, 2022-05-06 This book re examines the issue of religious conversion which has been a site of conflict in India for several centuries It discusses wide ranging themes such as conversion education and reform in colonial India the process and practices of conversion in Christian Europe Gandhi conversion and the equality of religions perspectives from Hindu nationalism secularism and religious minorities religious freedom and the limits of propagating religion and conversion in constitutional law commissions and courts to chart new directions for research on religion tradition and conversion Tracing developments from the 19th century colonial era to contemporary times the book analyses cultural background frameworks and the origins of religious conversion and its conceptualisation in Western Christianity It further delves into how Indian culture and its traditions have shaped responses to conversion Part of the Critical Humanities Across Cultures series this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of critical humanities religion cultural studies sociology of religion comparative religion philosophy anthropology theology Indology history politics postcolonial studies critical theory and South Asian studies

Religious Division and Social Conflict Peggy Froerer, 2007 An ethnographic account of the emergence of Hindu nationalism in a tribal adivasi community in Chattisgarh Central India

Hindu Mission, Christian Mission Reid B. Locklin, 2024-05-01 For some four hundred years Hindus and Christians have been engaged in a public controversy about conversion and missionary proselytization especially in India and the Hindu diaspora Hindu Mission Christian Mission reframes this controversy by shifting attention from conversion to a wider interreligious study of mission as a category of thought and practice Comparative theologian Reid B

Locklin traces the emergence of the nondualist Hindu teaching of Advaita Vedanta as a missionary tradition from the eighth century to the present day and draws this tradition into dialogue with contemporary proposals in Christian missiology As a descriptive study of the Chinmaya Mission the Ramakrishna Mission and other leading Advaita mission movements Hindu Mission Christian Mission contributes to a growing body of scholarship on transnational Hinduism As a speculative work of Christian comparative theology it develops key themes from this engagement for a new interreligious theology of mission and conversion for the twenty first century and beyond
