Remaking the Working Class? Bruce Spencer, 1989-01-01 We shall not be moved Brian Marren, 2016-05-01 The city of Liverpool had frequently been prone to industrial unrest for most of its recent history but it was the dawn of Thatcher and the sanctioning of neoliberal economic strategies which made Liverpool a nucleus of resistance against the encroaching tide of right wing politics and sweeping de industrialisation This critique explores six case studies which will illustrate how elements of a highly politicised local working class fought against the rapid rise in forced redundancies and industrial closures Some of their responses included strikes factory occupations the organisation and politicisation of the unemployed consent to radical left wing municipal politics as well as tacit endorsement a period of violent civil unrest This critique concludes that in the range intensity and use of innovative tactics deployed during these conflicts Liverpool was distinctive
