 brilliant an impressive tour de force Network Why does collective memory matter How is social memory generated maintained and reproduced How do we explain changes in the content and role of collective memory Through a synthesis of old and new theories of social remembering this book provides the first comprehensive overview of the sociology of memory This rapidly expanding field explores how representations of the past are generated maintained and reproduced through texts images sites rituals and experiences The main aim of the book is to show to what extent the investigation of memory challenges sociological understandings of the formation of social identities and conflicts It illustrates the new status of memory in contemporary societies by examining the complex relationships between memory and commemoration memory and identity memory and trauma and memory and justice The book consists of six chapters with the first three devoted to conceptualising the process of remembering by analyzing memory s function status and history as well as by locating the study of memory in a broader field of social science The second part of the book directly explores and discusses theories and studies of social remembering After a short conclusion which argues that study of collective memory is an important part of any examination of contemporary society the glossary offers a concise and up to date overview of the development of relevant theoretical concepts The result is an essential text for undergraduate courses in social theory the sociology of memory and a wider audience in cultural studies history and politics Broken Circles Anna Haebich, 2000-11-01 This major work reveals the dark heart of the history of the Stolen Generations in Australia It shows that from the earliest times of European colonization Aboriginal Australians experienced the trauma of loss and separation as their children were abducted enslaved institutionalized and culturally remodeled Providing a moving and comprehensive account of this tragic history this study covers all Australian colonies states and territories The analysis spans 200 years of white occupation and intervention from the earliest seizure of Aboriginal children through their systematic state removal and incarceration and on to the harsh treatment of families under the assimilation policies of the 1950s and 1960s The resistance struggle and achievements of Aboriginal people in defending their communities regaining their rights and mending the broken circles of family life provides a compelling parallel story of determination and courage Christian Advocate ,1923 Remembrance and Forgiveness Ajlina Karamehić-Muratović, Laura Kromják, 2020-10-26 An enquiry into the social science of remembrance and forgiveness in global episodes of genocide and mass violence during the post Holocaust era this volume explores the ways in which remembrance and forgiveness have changed over time and how they have been used in more recent cases of genocide and mass violence With case studies from Rwanda Ethiopia South Sudan South Africa Australia Cambodia Indonesia Timor Leste Israel Palestine Argentina Guatemala El Salvador the United States Bosnia and Herzegovina and Chechnya the volume avoids a purely legal perspective to open the interpretation of post genocidal societies communities and individuals to global and interdisciplinary perspectives that consider not only forgiveness and thus social harmony but remembrance and disharmony This volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in memory studies genocide remembrance and forgiveness

Memory, History, Nation Susannah Radstone, 2017-09-04 In the last decade a focus on memory in the human sciences has encouraged new approaches to the study of the past As the humanities and social sciences have put into question their own claims to objectivity authority and universality memory has appeared to offer a way of engaging with knowledge of the past as inevitably partial subjective and local At the same time memory and memorial practices have become sites of contestation and the politics of memory are increasingly prominent This interdisciplinary volume demonstrates from a range of perspectives the complex cultural work and struggles over meaning that lie at the heart of what we call memory The chapters in this volume offer a complex awareness of the workings of memory and the ways in which different or changing histories may be explained They explore the relation between individual and social memory between real and imaginary event and fantasy history and myth Contradictory accounts or memories in direct contradiction to the historical record are not always the sign of a repressive authority attempting to cover something up The tension between memory as a safeguard against attempts to silence dissenting voices and memory's own implication in that silencing runs throughout the book Topics covered range from the Basque country to Cambodia from Hungary to South Africa from the Finnish Civil War to the cult Jim Jarmusch movie Dead Man from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame to Australia

Part I Transforming Memory is concerned primarily with the social and personal transmission of memory across time and generations Part II Remembering Suffering Trauma and History brings the after effects of catastrophe to the fore Part III Patterning the National Past the relation between nation and memory is the central issue Part IV And Then Silence reflects on the complex and multiple meaning of silence and oblivion wherein amnesia is often used as a figure for the denial of shame

Accidental Ethnography Christopher N. Poulos, 2018-08-15 Each family has its secrets ones that shape family communication and relationships in a way generally unknown to the outsider and often the family itself Autoethnographers students of these relationships confront many silences in their attempts to understand these social worlds Now issued as a Routledge Education Classic Edition Accidental Ethnography delves into this shadowy world of pain and loss in the hopes of finding productive ethical avenues for transforming the secret lives of families into powerful narratives of hope It merges autoethnographic method with the therapeutic power of storytelling to heal family wounds A new preface text by the author reflects on the changes in the field of qualitative research and on his own research journey since the publication of the original edition

Psychology: From Inquiry to Understanding Scott Lilienfeld, Steven Jay Lynn, Laura Namy, Nancy Woolf, Graham Jamieson, Anthony Marks, Virginia Slaughter, 2014-10-01 Psychology from inquiry to understanding 2e continues its commitment to emphasise the importance of scientific thinking skills It teaches students how to test their assumptions and motivates them to use scientific thinking skills to better understand the field of psychology in their everyday lives With leading classic and contemporary research from both Australia and abroad and referencing DSM 5 students will understand the global nature of psychology in the context of Australia's cultural landscape The Realizations of the Future George Allan, 2015-05-28 George Allan is Professor of Philosophy and senior academic officer at Dickinson College

Seeking the Self - Encountering the Other Tuomas Huttunen, Janne Korkka, 2020-11-09 Seeking the Self Encountering the Other offers new insights into diasporic experiences encounters and representations This collection of texts examines diaspora narratives and the ways in which different encounters with the other are represented as well as how these encounters might be read and interpreted in ethical terms The anthology explores questions of ethics in narratives of displacement or belonging nationalist narratives of exclusion and borderline narratives constructed on the foundation provided by encounters with the cultural sexual gendered and ethnic other The contributors aim is to explore questions of responsibility and ethics in the study of diaspora migration and alterity from a wide range of perspectives Following a Levinasian one if the other is always ultimately transcendental and ungraspable through language we are required to consider ethics every time we write read or interpret an encounter with the other Navigating the Postmodern

Condition Wade A. Tillett, 2024-11-21 Drawing on poststructuralist frameworks this book examines the way to a radical acceptance of daily discontinuities and difference as it allows us to embrace life in the postmodern world With each chapter exploring the human relationship with a disjunction in daily life such as sleeping forgetting and multitasking the author examines overlooked aspects of daily living as fresh data from which to analyze our condition A phenomenological study of postmodern life the book provides anecdotes of what it is like to live through these gaps and theorizes how we use these gaps Using an arts based methodology the author also allows the work to mirror the discontinuities which it describes interrupting the assumption of our lives as continuous and unitary in both form and content Addressing the vast jumble of contradictions that is our daily experience in this contemporary world it offers explanation through theory and anecdote and illustrates the path toward radical acceptance which allows us to see ourselves as beautifully composed of fractures gaps and overflow It will appeal to scholars researchers and postgraduate students with interests in poststructuralism curriculum theory and art based research methods The Remembered and Forgotten Jewish World Daniel J. Walkowitz, 2018-09-05 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the Jewish socialist movement played a vital role in protecting workers rights throughout Europe and the Americas Yet few traces of this movement or its accomplishments have been preserved or memorialized in Jewish heritage sites The Remembered and Forgotten Jewish World investigates the politics of heritage tourism and collective memory In an account that is part travelogue part social history and part family saga acclaimed historian Daniel J Walkowitz visits key Jewish museums and heritage sites from Berlin to Belgrade from Krakow to Kiev and from Warsaw to New York to discover which stories of the Jewish experience are told and which are silenced As he travels to thirteen different locations participates in tours displays and public programs and gleans insight from local historians he juxtaposes the historical record with the stories presented in heritage tourism What he finds raises provocative questions about the heritage tourism industry and its role in determining how we perceive Jewish history and identity This book offers a unique perspective on the importance of collective memory and the dangers of collective forgetting A Theology of Traumatic Affect Alice Kim,2024-10-21 A Theology of Traumatic Affect offers theological tools language and framework to victims survivors of trauma and their communities Seen through the lens of affect theory the social dimensions of trauma emerge even for individual trauma Using an interdisciplinary approach Alice Kim argues that due to interconnectedness of individuals a communal effort is necessary for trauma work Living in a different world as imagined by public imagination is possible now with collective planetary engagement of all creatures participating in co creation Gender and Trauma since 1900 Paula A. Michaels,Christina Twomey,2021-04-08 Is Trauma a transhistorical transnational phenomenon Gender and Trauma challenges the standard history that has led to our contemporary understanding of psychological trauma to answer this question and to explore the impact of gender in the experience and understanding of emotional distress Bringing together eleven case studies from all over the world it draws on methods from history gender and communication studies to consider how trauma has been understood over the 20th and 21st centuries Encompassing histories from Australia Britain Indonesia Italy the Soviet Union Timor Leste the United States and Vietnam these examples demonstrate how gender and trauma are inextricably linked and how the term trauma has evolved over time With chapters on war political repression displacement rape and childbirth the cases showcased in this volume highlight two pivotal transformations across the 20th century First the transformation of the trauma sufferer from perpetrator to victim and second the increased understanding of psychological consequences of sexual assault and domestic violence Together these diverse stories yield a more nuanced picture of what trauma is how we have understood it alongside gender in the past and how this affects our understanding of it in the present Malady and Mortality Helen Thomas,2016-06-22 This ground breaking study examines visual and literary responses to and representations of illness dying and death from the perspective of the chronically ill their families and carers medics artists photographers authors and academics It encourages a re examination of cultural taboos and visual and literary practices that engage with illness and death Focusing upon a wide range of creative and critical engagements this book makes a significant contribution to the medical humanities via its exploration of medical practice literature and film digital media studies graphic design and both contemporary and historical attitudes towards illness death including infant mortality mourning and bereavement For some the experience of illness provokes feelings of exile crisis or social critique whilst for others it instigates utopian discourses predicated upon personal reflection communication or connectivity wherein the self is redefined beyond the parameters and constraints of the body
