... Representative Selections, with Introduction, Bibliography, and Notes Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1934 Jonathan Edwards, Religious Tradition, and American Culture Joseph A. Conforti, 1995 As the charismatic leader of the wave of religious revivals known as the Great Awakening Jonathan Edwards 1703-58 is one of the most important figures in American religious history However by the end of the eighteenth century his writings were generic Law and Providence in Joseph Bellamy's New England Mark Valeri, 1994-10-13 This study of religious thought and social life in early America focuses on the career of Joseph Bellamy 1719-1790 a Connecticut Calvinist minister noted chiefly for his role in originating the New Divinity the influential theological movement that evolved from the writings of Bellamy's teacher Jonathan Edwards Tracing Bellamy's contributions as a preacher noted controversialist and church leader from the Great Awakening to the American Revolution Mark Valeri explores why the New Divinity was so immensely popular Set in social contexts such as the emergent market economy the war against France and the politics of rebellion Valeri shows Bellamy's story reveals much about the relationship between religion and public issues in colonial New England Law and Letters in American Culture Robert A. Ferguson, 1984 The role of religion in early American literature has been endlessly studied the role of the law has been virtually ignored Robert A. Ferguson's book seeks to correct this imbalance With the Revolution Ferguson demonstrates the lawyer replaced the clergyman as the dominant intellectual force in the new nation Lawyers wrote the first important plays novels and poems as gentlemen of letters they controlled many of the journals and literary societies and their education in the law led to a controlling aesthetic that shaped both the civic and the imaginative literature of the early republic An awareness of this aesthetic enables us to see works as diverse as Jefferson's Notes on the State of Virginia and Irving's burlesque History of New York as unified texts products of the legal mind of the time The Declaration of Independence the Constitution and the great political orations were written by lawyers and so too were the literary works of Trumbull Tyler Brackenridge Charles Brockden Brown William Cullen Bryant Richard Henry Dana Jr and a dozen other important writers To recover the original meaning and context of these writings is to gain new understanding of a whole era of American culture The nexus of law and letters persisted for more than a half century Ferguson explores a range of factors that contributed to its gradual dissolution the yielding of neoclassicism to romanticism the changing role of the writer the shift in the lawyer's stance from generalist to specialist and from ideological spokesman to tactician of compromise the onslaught of Jacksonian democracy and the problems of a country torn by sectional strife At the same time he demonstrates continuities with the American Renaissance And in Abraham Lincoln he sees a memorable late flowering of the earlier tradition The Letters of William Cullen Bryant William Cullen Bryant, Thomas G. Voss, 2019-11-05 On April 26 1865 as Abraham Lincoln's funeral cortege paused in Union Square New York before being taken by rail to Springfield Illinois William Cullen Bryant listened as his own verse elegy for the slain president was read to a great concourse of mourners by the Reverend Samuel

Osgood Only five years earlier and a few blocks downtown at Cooper Union Bryant had introduced the prairie candidate to his first eastern audience There his masterful appeal to the conscience of the nation prepared the way for his election to the presidency on the verge of the Civil War Now Bryant stood below Henry Kirke Brown s equestrian statue of George Washington impressing Osgood as if he were the 19th Century itself thinking over the nation and the age in that presence Bryant s staunch support of the Union cause throughout the war and of Lincoln s war efforts no less than his known influence with the president led several prominent public figures to urge that he write Lincoln s biography Oliver Wendell Holmes wrote him No man combines the qualities for his biographer so completely as yourself and the finished task would be a noble crown to a noble literary life But Bryant declined declaring his inability to record impartially critical events in which he had taken so central a part Furthermore while preoccupied with the editorial direction of the New York Evening Post he was just then repossessing and enlarging his family s homestead at Cumington Massachusetts where he hoped his ailing wife might during long summers in mountain air regain her health But in July 1866 Frances died of recurrent rheumatic fever and Bryant confessed to Richard Dana he felt as one cast out of Paradise After Frances death Bryant traveled with his daughter Julia for nearly a year through Great Britain and the Continent where he met British statesman and novelist Edward Bulwer Lytton and French literary critic Hyppolyte Taine renewed his friendship with Spanish poet Carolina Coronado Italian liberator Giuseppe Garibaldi and British and American artists and visited the family of the young French journalist Georges Clemenceau as well as the graves of earlier acquaintances Francis Lord Jeffrey and Elizabeth Barrett Browning In his spare moments Bryant sought solace by beginning the translation of Homer and Longfellow had found relief after his wife s tragic death by rendering into English Dante s Divine Comedy Home again in New York Bryant bought and settled in a house at 24 West 16th Street which would be his city home for the rest of his life Here he completed major publications including the Iliad and Odyssey of Homer and an exhaustive Library of Poetry and Song and added to published tributes to earlier friends such as Thomas Cole Fenimore Cooper and Washington Irving memorial discourses on Fitz Greene Halleck and Gulian Verplanck In addition to his continued direction of the New York Homeopathic Medical college and the American Free Trade League he was elected to the presidency of the Williams College Alumni Association the International Copyright Association and the Century Association the club of artists and writers of which twenty years earlier he had been a principal founder and which he would direct for the last decade of his life
