Rescue Archeology National Trust for Historic Preservation in the United States, Organization of American States, 1982

Rescue Archeology Rex L. Wilson, 1987 Archaeological Heritage Management in the Modern World Henry

Cleere, 2012-11-12 Representing the latest thinking in this fast moving and often emotive field this book offers a remarkably comprehensive international coverage of the public aspects of archaeology. The process of survey and inventory, rescue and archaeology conservation and protection have until now been studied largely on the basis of individual countries and their administrative and legislative structures. Now by virtue of its broad geographical coverage this volume provides many rights and guidelines not hitherto brought into focus the history and philosophy of archaeological heritage management case studies regional national and specialised and the training and qualification of archaeologists for heritage management. This book is essential reading for all students researchers and practitioners concerned with archaeological heritage management, public administration and the legal community whose work involves archaeological issues.

Archaeological Heritage Management Henry Cleere, 2020-11-25 This book results from discussions at the 1982 World Archaeological Congress on Public Archaeology and Cultural Resource Management. It brings to everyone's notice the common need of a coherent well planned response to the potentially destructive threats of development and tourism to archaeology.

Cultural Resource Laws and Practice Thomas F. King, 2008-06-13 Thomas King brings this important work up to date taking a new look at cultural resource laws historic preservation archaeological fieldwork the environment tribal government and agency management.

Management Planning for Archaeological Sites Jeanne Marie Teutonico, Gaetano Palumbo, Getty Conservation Institute, Loyola Marymount University, 2002 This volume reports on the proceedings of a workshop held in Greece near the ancient site of Corinth to discuss challenges faced by archaeological sites in the Mediterranean and to examine management planning methods that might generate effective conservation strategies.

Archaeology in the Lowland American Tropics Peter W. Stahl, 1995-05-25 This volume explores problems faced by archaeologists in the difficult conditions of the lowland American tropics.

ARCHAEOLOGY - Volume II Donald L. Hardesty, 2010-06-15 Archaeology is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias. Archaeology is a road for traveling into the past that is independent of and complementary to documents and memory. The archaeological record provides historical perspectives on variability and change in human life support systems with the potential for use in planning for future sustainable development. The Theme is organized into four different topics which represent the main scientific areas of the theme Foundations of Archaeology The Archaeology of Life Support Systems World Cultural Heritage Preserving Archaeological Sites and Monuments which are then expanded into multiple subtopics each as a chapter. The first topic deals with historical methodological and theoretical foundations of archaeology. The second topic explores the archaeological record of human life support systems and includes chapters on foraging food production such as farming and nomadic lifestyles civilizations water management systems and sustainability World cultural heritage is the third topic Finally the fourth topic covers the preservation of cultural memorials such as archaeological sites landscapes and monuments These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College Students Educators Professional Practitioners Research

Outside the Hacienda Walls Allan Meyers,2012-11-01 The Mexican Revolution was a tumultuous struggle for social and political reform that ousted an autocrat and paved the way for a new national constitution The conflict however came late to Yucatán where a network of elite families with largely European roots held the reins of government This privileged group reaped spectacular wealth from haciendas cash crop plantations tended by debt ridden servants of Maya descent When a revolutionary army from central Mexico finally gained a foothold in Yucatán in 1915 the local custom of agrarian servitude met its demise Drawing on a dozen years of archaeological and historical investigation Allan Meyers breaks new ground in the study of Yucatán haciendas He explores a plantation village called San Juan Bautista Tabi which once stood at the heart of a vast sugar estate Occupied for only a few generations the village was abandoned during the revolutionary upheaval Its ruins now lie within a state owned ecological reserve Through oral histories archival records and physical remains Meyers examines various facets of the plantation landscape He presents original data and fresh interpretations on settlement organization social stratification and spatial relationships His systematic approach to things underfoot small everyday objects that are now buried in the tropical forest offers views of the hacienda experience that are often missing in official written sources In this way he raises the voices of rural mostly illiterate Maya speakers who toiled as laborers What emerges is a portrait of hacienda social life that transcends depictions gleaned from historical methods alone Students researchers and travelers to Mexico will all find something of interest in Meyers s lively presentation Readers will see the old haciendas once forsaken but now experiencing a rebirth as tourist destinations in a new light These heritage sites not only testify to social conditions that prevailed before the Mexican Revolution but also remind us that the human geography of modern Yucatán is as much a product of plantation times as it is
