Silvestri were hanged in the courtyard of the Cook County Jail The three had only recently come to the city but not long after they were arrested tried and convicted for murdering Filippo Caruso stuffing his body into a trunk and shipping it to Pittsburgh Historian and legal expert Elizabeth Dale brings the Trunk Murder case vividly back to life painting an indelible portrait of nineteenth century Chicago ethnic life there and a murder trial gone seriously awry Along the way she reveals a Windy City teeming with street peddlers crooked cops earnest reformers and legal activists all of whom play a part in this gripping tale The Chicago Trunk Murder shows how the defendants in the case were arrested on dubious evidence and held some for weeks without access to lawyers or friends The accused finally confessed after being interrogated repeatedly by men who did not speak their language They were then tried before a judge who had his own view and ruled accordingly The Chicago Trunk Murder revisits these abject breaches of justice and uses them to consider much larger problems in late nineteenth century criminal law Written with a storyteller's flair for narrative and brimming with historical detail this book will be must reading for true crime buffs and aficionados of Chicago lore alike
