Lurching from One Near Disaster to the Next Warren Miller, 2011-08 Warren Miller started skiing in 1939 and has been going downhill ever since. On his way down he has produced almost 500 sports films and also published several books. This book illustrated with many of Warren's original cartoons chronicles his adventures on skis while boating and as he lunched through all other facets of his life. MotorBoating, 2001-11 A 1970s Teenager Simon Webb, 2013-04-01 What was it like being a teenager in a world without computers, smartphones, DVD players, games consoles, or the Internet? Imagine a time when sharing music meant taking a record round to your friend's house when making a quick phone call could involve queuing outside a red telephone box. This book looks at the fads and fashions, music, hobbies, and TV programmes which defined the 70s for many youngsters. If you remember riding a chopper, reading Jackie during the Winter of Discontent, or watching the Bay City Rollers on Top of the Pops during the long hot summer of 1976, this book is for you. A 1970s Teenager is a nostalgic and colourful account of what it was like to be young in the most exciting decade of all. Good Practice in Brain Injury Case Management Jackie Parker, 2006-05-15 This book provides a guide to effective case management, outlining all the key issues that professionals working with brain-injured people will need to know, from understanding what brain injury actually is and how it feels to experience it, to strategies for rehabilitation, assessing risk, and implementing support plans. Lurching from One Near Disaster to the Next Warren Miller, 1998-01-01 Skiing Sun Valley: A History from Union Pacific to the Holdings John W. Lundin, 2020 Union Pacific Railroad's Averell Harriman had a bold vision to restore rail passenger traffic decimated by the Great Depression, create ski tourism in Idaho's remote Wood River Valley. A 1.5 million investment opened Sun Valley in December 1936 with a lavish lodge, luxury shopping, Austrian ski instructors, and extensive backcountry skiing. Prestigious tournaments featured the world's best skiers. Chairlifts invented by Union Pacific engineers serviced skiers quickly and comfortably. Ski instructor and filmmaker Otto Lang recalled that seemingly overnight it became a magnet for the beautiful people, a meeting place for movie stars and moguls, chairmen and captains of industry, Greek shipping tycoons, and peripatetic playboys and playgirls of the international social set. After World War II and Harriman's departure, Union Pacific's willingness to pay the 500,000 yearly subsidy waned. Bill Janss purchased it in 1964 and reimagined it as a year-round resort but lacked the capital for growth. Sinclair Oil owners Earl and Carol Holding acquired it in 1977, revitalizing it into a premier resort with international status. Award-winning ski historian John W. Lundin celebrates America's first destination ski resort using unpublished Union Pacific documents, oral histories, contemporaneous accounts, and more than 150 historic images. Temporary Sarina Bowen, Sarah Mayberry, 2017-09-12 By New York Times bestseller Sarah Mayberry and USA Today bestseller Sarina Bowen. The first time I lay eyes on Callan Walker, I know he'll be trouble. With his smug grin, hot Aussie accent, and thousand-dollar shoes, he's just the kind of rich guy who always gets what he wants. And he wants two things: a night of sin and my cooperation, as he outmaneuvers his powerful mother to take control of his uncle's estate I can't afford either one I'm the only thing standing between my little sister and the foster care system He may have money and charm on his side but I have something even more powerful pure desperation This temp job at his mother's company can become a full time job for me It has to But when Callan's eyes rake over my body sometimes I forget my obligations His piercing gaze finds the fun optimistic girl I used to be and not the tired person I've become And it works if only for a moment Our night together was a mistake I can't afford to get sucked into his high powered family's treachery But the closer I get to Callan the more layers I find beneath those expensive clothes Though I can't forget this is temporary He's temporary I have too much to lose Too bad my foolish heart didn't get the memo Perfect for fans of billionaire romance Carly Phillips Vi Keeland Penelope Ward Meghan March Elle Kennedy Kendall Ryan and Lauren Blakely Warren's World ,

A Grain of Wheat Joseph Jacobson,2020-05-19 This is the story of how a brilliant but disillusioned man moves from a self absorbed childhood and adolescence to a dramatic awakening to a life of love and duty that draws him out of himself and plunges him into the world of pure science as his way of serving God and neighbour The reader journeys with him every step of the way experiencing with him his two great personal loves his apparent triumphs his devastating losses his shocking moments of confrontation with bitter truth and his final victory In the course of this great adventure the false assumptions on which so much of modern Western society is based crumble out from under him and out of his disillusionment and despair emerges for him the one Glory which does not crumble away Set in the American Middle West in the first half of the Twentieth Century this novel probes many of the issues that we face today and puts them in the context of God's unfolding plan for humanity Other People's Houses Abbi Waxman,2018-04-03 Abbi Waxman is both irreverent and thoughtful 1 New York Times bestselling author Emily Giffin The author of The Garden of Small Beginnings returns with a hilarious and poignant new novel about four families their neighborhood carpool and the affair that changes everything At any given moment in other people's houses you can find repressed hopes and dreams moments of unexpected joy someone making love on the floor to a man who is most definitely not her husband record scratch As the longtime local carpool mom Frances Bloom is sometimes an unwilling witness to her neighbors private lives She knows her cousin is hiding her desire for another baby from her spouse Bill Horton's wife is mysteriously missing and now this After the shock of seeing Anne Porter in all her extramarital glory Frances vows to stay in her own lane But that's a notion easier said than done when Anne's husband throws her out a couple of days later The repercussions of the affair reverberate through the four carpool families and Frances finds herself navigating a moral minefield that could make or break a marriage Driving with Dvor?_k Fleda Brown Jackson,2010-01-01 All our lives are made of moments both simple and sublime all of which in some way partake of the cultural moment Fleda Brown is that rare writer who in narrating the incidents and observations of her life turns her story by wit and insight and a poet's gift into something more This is an unconventional memoir A series of lyrical essays about life in a maddeningly complex family during the even more maddeningly complex fifties and sixties it adds up to one woman's story while simultaneously reflecting the story of her times A strange and erratic father a resigned and helpless mother a mentally disabled brother a sister with a brain tumor folded into Brown's reflections are the intimacies and ambivalences of family and marriage girlhood and adolescence identity and self knowledge Whether reflecting on the automobile industry or a wrenching parting from beloved pets or the process of aging Brown's telling rings with great humor profound perception and a lyricism that makes even the most commonplace moment uncommonly good reading The until now Thompson's daughters Jenny and Sherry Thompson skillfully and thoroughly document his life as an accomplished career diplomat. In vigorous prose they describe how Thompson joined the Foreign Service both to feed his desire for adventure and from a deep sense of duty. They also detail the crucial role he played as a negotiator unafraid of compromise. Known in the State Department as Mr Tightlips, Thompson was the epitome of discretion. People from completely opposite ends of the political spectrum lauded his approach to diplomacy and claimed him as their own. Refuting historical misinterpretations of the Berlin Crisis, the Austrian State Treaty and the Cuban Missile Crisis, the Thompsons tell their father's fascinating story. With unprecedented access to Thompson's FBI dossier, State Department personnel files, letters, diaries, speeches and documents, and relying on probing interviews and generous assistance from American and Russian archivists, historians and government officials, the authors bring new material to light, including important information on the U 2, Kennan's containment policy and Thompson's role in US covert operations machinery. This unique and monumental biography not only restores a central figure to history, it makes the crucial events he shaped accessible to a broader readership and gives contemporary readers a backdrop for understanding the fraught United States-Russia relationship that still exists today. Henrik, Hairdryers and the Hand of God Brian Marjoribanks, 2012. Ever wondered what it is like to be on the receiving end of a Sir Alex Ferguson hairdryer? Or how Jean Marc Bosman reacted the exact moment he discovered he'd won his famous court case? Henrik, Hairdryers and the Hand of God lifts the lid on British sports journalism. Leading sports writers such as Patrick Barclay, Graham Hunter, Tom English, Graham Spiers, Hugh Keevins, Gerry McNee, Davie Provan, Pat Nevin and dozens of others powerfully relate the real stories behind the headlines, laying bare the world of sportswriting and broadcasting in all its fascinating glory and infamy. New Statesman Society, 1995-05.
