Lying About Hitler Richard J. Evans, 2008-08-04 In ruling against the controversial historian David Irving in his libel suit against the American historian Deborah Lipstadt last April 2000 the High Court in London labeled him a falsifier of history No objective historian declared the judge would manipulate the documentary record in the way that Irving did Richard J Evans a Cambridge historian and the chief advisor for the defense uses this pivotal trial as a lens for exploring a range of difficult questions about the nature of the historian's enterprise For instance don't all historians in the end bring a subjective agenda to bear on their reading of the evidence Is it possible that Irving lost his case not because of his biased history but because his agenda was unacceptable The central issue in the trial as for Evans in this book was not the past itself but the way in which historians study the past In a series of short sharp chapters Richard Evans sets David Irving's methods alongside the historical record in order to illuminate the difference between responsible and irresponsible history The result is a cogent and deeply informed study in the nature of historical interpretation

Lying About Hitler Richard Evans, 2002-04-18 In ruling against the controversial historian David Irving whose libel suit against the American historian Deborah Lipstadt was tried in April 2000 the High Court in London labeled Irving a falsifier of history No objective historian declared the judge would manipulate the documentary record in the way that Irving did Richard J Evans a Cambridge historian and the chief adviser for the defense uses this famous trial as a lens for exploring a range of difficult questions about the nature of the historian's enterprise

The story of legendary American journalist William L Shirer and how his first hand reporting on the rise of the Nazis and on World War II brought the devastation alive for millions of Americans When William L Shirer started up the Berlin bureau of Edward R Murrow's CBS News in the 1930s he quickly became the most trusted reporter in all of Europe Shirer hit the streets to talk to both the everyman and the disenfranchised yet he gained the trust of the Nazi elite and through these contacts obtained a unique perspective of the party's rise to power Unlike some of his esteemed colleagues he did not fall for Nazi propaganda and warned early of the consequences if the Third Reich was not stopped When the Germans swept into Austria in 1938 Shirer was the only American reporter in Vienna and he broadcast an eyewitness account of the annexation In 1940 he was embedded with the invading German army as it stormed into France and occupied Paris The Nazis insisted that the armistice be reported through their channels yet Shirer managed to circumvent the German censors and again provided the only live eyewitness account His notoriety grew inside the Gestapo who began to build a charge of espionage against him His life at risk Shirer had to escape from Berlin early in the war When he returned in 1946 to cover the Nuremberg trials Shirer had seen the full arc of the Nazi menace It was that experience that inspired him to write The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich the magisterial definitive history of the most brutal ten years the modern world had known which has sold millions of copies and has become a classic Drawing on never before seen journals and letters from Shirer's time in Germany award winning reporter Steve Wick brings to life the maverick journalist as he watched history unfold and first shared it with the world Political Trials in Theory and History Jens Meierhenrich, Devin O.
