Making Cultural Connections Readings For Critical Analysis:

　Making Cultural Connections Marilyn Rye,1994　　Making Cultural Connections ,1994　　Literature and Ethnic Discrimination Michael J. Meyer,2023-11-27 Even though universities and colleges make a concerted effort to foster unity and worldwide acceptance of different ethnicities by including politically correct literature in their curriculums their attempts to protect students from being exposed to texts that portray discrimination and exhibit racial insensitivity are futile and ill advised Texts that contain biases based on otherness continue to be written and those produced in the past remain relevant and still demand the attention of an audience of reader In order to see the full picture of the world in which they live students must face even that which is uncomfortable and disturbing To think otherwise is to create and academic environment that is totally idealistic and distorts the fact that ethnic discrimination has been a potent reality in every society in history and remains so today These studies in this volume allow readers to meet writers from the traditional American and European canon while also being exposed to third world writers whose work may be unfamiliar They include memoirs of Holocaust survivors and even record the silencing of Italian women Apartheid in South Africa and tribal conflict in Nigeria as well as transplanted Asian culture in Canada and the idolization of the black body in Japan The collection permits a viewing of the ethnic other not merely in a politically correct way in which one samples the differences and nods approvingly Rather its intent is to offer opportunities for contemplative assessment of authorial motives and goals thereby engendering a wealth of understanding based on active engagement rather than passive acceptance of the status quo　　WPA, Writing Program Administration ,1993　　Making Connections Kenneth J. Pakenham,Jo McEntire,Jessica Williams,Amy Cooper,2013 This title introduces first time readers of academic text to basic reading strategies such as finding paragraph topics finding supporting details and learning to read quickly It features a variety of high interest topics including national borders names food sleep natural disasters and music　　Periodicals, Readers and the Making of a Modern Literary Culture: Bengal at the Turn of the Twentieth Century Samarpita Mitra,2020-06-15 In Periodicals Readers and the Making of a Modern Literary Culture Bengal at the Turn of the Twentieth Century Samarpita Mitra studies literary periodicals as a particular print form and reveals how their production and circulation were critical to the formation of a Bengali public sphere during the turn of the twentieth century Given its polyphonic nature capacity for sustaining debates and adaptability by readers with diverse reading competencies periodicals became the preferred means for dispensing modern education and entertainment through the vernacular The book interrogates some of the defining debates that shaped readers perspectives on critical social issues and explains how literary culture was envisioned as an indicator of the emergent nation Finally it looks at the Bengali Muslim and women s periodicals and their readerships and argues that the presence of multiple literary voices make it impossible to speak of Bengali literary culture in any singular terms　　Critical Perspectives on Language and Discourse in the New World Order Faiz Sathi Abdullah,Mardziah Hayati Abdullah,Tan Bee Hoon,2009-03-26 The papers in this book explore language use in a broad range of discourse fields They provide theoretical perspectives on global orientations to social political and economic transformations in the New World Order NWO and extend these with studies on the impacts of such transformations at the local national regional and global levels The discussions highlight current concerns among academics and political commentators about the potential social impact of representations of the NWO in language and discourse The present work is important in raising social consciousness towards the central role that language and discourse play in the construction of shifting multiple identities In this way the roles of critical discourse analysis and indeed that of the analysts themselves are emancipative and socially transformative The value of such consciousness raising for potential social action in language user empowerment terms cannot be overstressed particularly given the ascendant position of the English language in the NWO This collection is a significant contribution to the ongoing critical discussion on global order discourse
