Smith and Frank Cole as well as familiar and not so familiar tokens of Canadian masculinity such as the hockey hero the gangsta rapper the immigrant farmer and the drag king Making It Like a Man is the first book of its kind to explore and critique historical and contemporary masculinities in Canada with a special focus on artistic and cultural production and representation It is concerned with mapping some of the uniquely Canadian places and spaces in the international field of masculinity studies and will be of interest to academic and culturally informed audiences Making It Happen Rebecca Stephens MBE, 2021-11-25 An inspiring and informative read Financial Times Shortlisted for the Business Book Awards 2022 In Making It Happen Rebecca Stephens argues that the successful implementation of strategy often comes down to one individual an individual with a clear unswerving commitment to the cause coupled with excellent leadership and communication skills We all have the power within us to create change and get things done even against the odds With a variety of case studies and an eclectic selection of interviewees this book champions diversity of thought and the importance of gleaning practical and actionable insights from a broad array of perspectives and experiences And making things happen is more important now than ever Virtually every organization institution and business is in desperate need of a practical and actionable strategy to find their way through these difficult times with minimal disruption According to the Project Management Institute 37% of projects fail due to the lack of defined project objectives and milestones Yet there are rare exceptions to this widespread failure to effectively strategize This book tells the stories of individuals whose extraordinary efforts and persistence have resulted in successful strategy execution Interestingly most have effected change not just to the benefit of themselves or their organization but to broader society too And most work in organizations that are typically steeped in tradition and resistant to change the civil service the UN the medical industry education financial services and long established multi national corporations Rebecca Stephens interviews these individuals and uncovers the secrets behind their success while also drawing upon her own eclectic experiences in implementing strategy from both her corporate and journalism career and her time as a revered mountaineer Making it Happen demonstrates that it s a sense of purpose conviction and optimism combined with strong commitment and the ability to influence and persuade that leads to the successful implementation and execution of strategy More Than Just Making It Erin Odom, 2017-09-05 More Than Just Making It is your invitation to reimagine what the good life can be Join Erin Odom a mom thrown into low income living to learn how to overcome your circumstances find creative ways to earn and save and reset your heart and budget according to God s designs When you re trapped in a cycle of financial frustration and you feel like you ve tried everything only to end up with more month than money yet again More Than Just Making It is your promise and pathway to thriving again Take it from someone who s been there Erin Odom grew up in the private schools and neatly manicured lawns of Upper Middle Class America but was thrown into low income living during the economic crash She was a stay at home mom her husband was supporting the family on a teacher s salary and even though they had no debt to their name they were scrambling to make ends meet Suddenly Erin found herself standing in line for food stamps turning down play dates because she couldn't afford the gas and ultimately walking into bankruptcy court in the eighth month of her third pregnancy More Than Just Making It tells the story of their breaking point as well as the triumph of their comeback It took hard work creativity and faith in God's provision to reset their bank account as well as their hearts but ultimately they found a new way to thrive and freedom from financial anxiety You can do the same Learn how Erin and her family saved enough money to put 30 000 down on a home buy a minivan in cash and begin sending their daughter to private Christian school More Than Just Making It will encourage you to rise above your circumstances empower you with money saving tips and reimagine the good life as God designed it outside the myth of the American Dream
