- ▶ Bradford saved many documents from the trip's planning phase.
- ▶ During his 30 years as governor, he continued to document the challenges of the growing colony, which owed its survival to his energy, vision, and expert diplomacy.
- ▶ His chronicle, Of Plymouth Plantation, is our best history of these adventurous times.

Writing Exile Jan Felix Gaertner, 2007 The volume explores how Greek and Latin authors perceive and present their own real or metaphorical exile and employ exile as a powerful trope to express estrangement elicit readerly sympathy and question political power structures

Making History Jonathon S. Cullick, 2000-04-01 From his first published book to his last works Robert Penn Warren wrote novels poetry biographies and essays based on the lives of American historical figures Even some of his critical texts take a biographical approach to their subjects In Making History the first comprehensive survey of Warren's biographical narratives Jonathan S Cullick tracks a clear development toward autobiography in Warren's career By applying narrative theory to that provocative trend he then makes an intriguing discovery Warren's discourse techniques dramatize his philosophy of history and ethics Cullick unearths what might be called the narrative syntax of Warren's historical vision in which genre becomes vital in the attempt to reconcile American past and present Making History considers all of Warren's major biographical narratives and their evolution from detached reporting to doubtful self examination It offers a new reading of Warren's famed novel All the King's Men and close examination of several neglected texts including Warren's first book John Brown The Making of a Martyr his essay The World of Daniel Boone and two of his final works Jefferson Davis Gets His Citizenship Back and Portrait of a Father

The Making of a Historian K. M. De Silva, 2017

Making Animal Meaning Linda Kalof, Georgina M. Montgomery, 2011-12-01 An elucidating collection of ten original essays Making Animal Meaning reconceptualizes methods for researching animal histories and rethinks the contingency of the human animal relationship The vibrant and diverse field of animal studies is detailed in these interdisciplinary discussions which include voices from a broad range of scholars and have an extensive chronological and geographical reach These exciting discourses capture the most compelling theoretical underpinnings of animal significance while exploring meaning making through the study of specific spaces species and human animal relations A deeply thoughtful collection vital to understanding central questions of agency kinship and animal consumption these essays tackle the history and philosophy of constructing animal meaning

Authorship and Text-making in Early China Hanmo Zhang, 2018-10-08 This book is a timely response to a rather urgent call to seek an updated methodology in rereading and reappraising early Chinese texts in light of newly discovered early writings For a long time the concept of authorship in the formation and transmission of early Chinese texts has been misunderstood The nominal author who should mainly function as a guide to text formation and interpretation is considered retrospectively as the originator and writer of the text This book illustrates that although some notions about the text as the author's property began to appear in some Eastern Han texts a strict correlation between the author and the text results from later conceptions of literary history Before the modern era there existed a conceptual gap between an author and a writer A pre modern Chinese text could have had both an author and a writer or even multiple authors and multiple writers This work is the first study addressing these issues by more systematically emphasizing the connection of the text the author and the religious and sociopolitical settings in which these issues were embedded It is expected to constitute a palpable contribution to Chinese studies and the discipline of philology in general

Historian's Life Fay Anderson, 2017-04-28 Max Crawford was one of Australia's pre eminent historians As both a participant in and observer of many decisive episodes of the era Europe in the midst of the Depression America and Russia at the height of World War II post war reconstruction and the Cold War in Australia Crawford was regarded as a radical and outspoken defender of intellectual autonomy This biography considers Crawford as an historian and a public intellectual It relates his experiences as a student at Sydney and Oxford a struggling teacher during the Depression as the head of the History School at the University of Melbourne a diplomat in wartime Russia and a Cold War victim and accuser The study of Crawford's life provides insight into one man's experience in the midst of political turmoil and the limits of intellectual autonomy on Australian campuses as well as the suspicion of liberal intellectuals in Australian public life the repression of academic radicals and ASIO's attempts to stifle dissident voices Spanning his life 1906-1991 Crawford's political and intellectual journey suggests the changing nature of Australian progressive liberalism and the precarious state of academic freedom

The Historian's Craft in the Age of Herodotus Nino Luraghi, 2007 The origins and development of Greek historiography cannot be properly understood unless early historical writings are situated in the framework of late archaic and early classical Greek culture and society Contextualization opens up new perspectives on the subject in The Historian's Craft in the Age of Herodotus At the same time such writings offer significant insights into how works of Herodotus reflect the attitude of fifth century Greeks towards the transmission and manipulation of knowledge about the past Essays by an international range of experts explore all aspects of the topic and at the same time make a thought provoking contribution to the ongoing debates concerning literacy and oral culture

The Historian's Red Badge of Courage Paul A. Cimballa, 2020-07-08 For someone who did not actually fight in the American Civil War Stephen Crane was extraordinarily accurate in his description of the psychological tension experienced by a youthful soldier grappling with his desire to act heroically his fears and redemption Stephen Crane's novel The Red Badge of Courage provides an extraordinary take on the battlefield experiences of a young soldier coming of age under extreme circumstances His writing took place a generation after the war's conclusion at a time when the entire nation was coming to grips with the meaning of the Civil War It was during this time in the late 19th century that the battle over the memory of the war was taking place This new annotated edition of the novel is designed to guide readers through references made through Crane's characters and how they reflect Civil War military experiences specifically how the youth's experiences reflect the reality of the multi day battle of Chancellorsville which took place in Virginia beginning on May 1 1863 and concluded on May 4 of the same year The annotated text is preceded by introductory essays on Crane and on the Civil War Crane's short story The Veteran is also included to allow readers to better understand the post war lives of Civil War soldiers

Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1967

Ban Bak: A Historian's Notebook, 2014 Nail 213, 2015 Ban Bak is a definitive study of the discovery and destruction of a secret Laotian logistics complex on the Ho Chi Minh Trail. Forward Air Controllers observed suspicious activity near the Ban Bak river crossing. CHECO reports of the COVEY Bomb Dump were flawed but COVEY 257 Gary Beard corrects the record with first person accounts by participants. Additional information both historical and fictional is provided by veteran authors whose writings lend both resource and context. Ban Bak is third of three FAC related volumes associated with FACs in the Vietnam War: Cleared Hot Vol I and Cleared Hot Vol II. BAN BAK extends these accounts by including tributes to fallen FACs, a Time Line of Forward Air Controllers in history, a Lexicon of FAC Terms and Information, a classified report on COMBAT INK surveillance methods, and an extensive bibliography of FAC related literature and sources useful to all readers of Vietnam history. Ban Bak is 474 pages long, A4 format, in soft binding only. Linguistics of History Roy Harris, 2019-07-30. This book is the first comprehensive attempt to trace the relationship between Western philosophy of history and Western philosophy of language.

The Historian's Toolbox Robert C. Williams, 2024-09-19. Now in its fifth edition, The Historian's Toolbox is designed to help students become skilled in the intellectual process and craft of history, offering an overview of the field and techniques for reading and writing about history. The fifth edition expands the selection of tools available to students entering the workshop of history. These include new chapters on digital history, Indigenous peoples and gender history, and new sections on the Voynich manuscript, LGBTQ history, slavery, and a historian who survived the war in Ukraine. The book has been fully updated to address the possibilities and limits of computerized approaches to doing history, with careful attention paid to the benefits and controversies of artificial intelligence chatbots and the internet. It demonstrates the continuing relevance of history in a cacophonous world of misinformation and censorship, emphasizing critical thinking, facts, and evidence as valuable means of understanding the past and shaping the future. Engaging and accessible, this volume is ideal for undergraduate courses in historiography and historical methods.

Transformation of Archives and Heritage Education in Post-apartheid South Africa Geraldine Frieslaar, Olusegun Morakinyo, 2023-06-10. Although there have been significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel, develop new museums and heritage institutions, and heritage training initiatives in post-apartheid South Africa, the Eurocentric model of the archive, museum, and heritage sector has largely remained intact. Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post-apartheid South Africa, it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic, with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum, as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education, remaining solid, largely unmoved, and under continuing challenge. This is the thrust of this book, which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring.

The Historian's Conscience Stuart Macintyre, 2004. Exploring pivotal questions of their profession, this collection of essays by 13 well-known

Australian scholars presents the ethical challenges of researching and writing history Including contributions from Alan Atkinson Graeme Davison Greg Denning John Hirst Beverley Kingston Marilyn Lake and Iain McCalman this personally revealing and intellectually provocative introspection discusses such dilemmas as how to handle emotional investments in the subject control sympathies and biases and address the responsibilities historians have to both their subject and their audience

The Historian's Awakening Bernard Koloski,2018-11-16 The Historian's Awakening is a full commentary on the text included that provides social and cultural history context discussions of the author and her times as well as valuable insight into historical forces that shaped people's lives Kate Chopin's classic novel about a modern woman who desires to break free from tradition endures in part due to its critical and thought provoking themes about society While many editions of Kate Chopin's classic novel are in print only The Historian's Awakening deals exclusively with the 19th century social and cultural environment from which the novel emerged In The Awakening Kate Chopin portrays a modern woman who seeks autonomy subjected to intense social and cultural conventions that first draw her out of her lifelong solitude but ultimately leave her feeling even more alone This newly annotated edition focuses on how 19th century ideas about class gender ethnicity and modernity affect a courageous woman's life Challenging prevailing scholarship by situating the novel within a rich historical context it examines the social and cultural realities of the 1890s and explains how in the novel these forces combine with an emerging modernity to liberate and unsettle its female protagonist

The Historian's Toolbox Robert Chadwell Williams,2007 The first part of the book is a stimulating introduction to the key elements of history evidence narrative judgement that explores how the study and concepts of history have evolved over the centuries The second part guides readers through the workshop of history Unlocking the historian's toolbox it reveals the tricks of the trade including documents sources footnotes bibliographies chronologies and more This section also covers issues of interpretation speculation professional ethics and controversial issues such as plagiarism historical hoaxes and conspiracy theories
