

B. Evaluating argumentation:

- ❖ Another way of judging the strength of arguments is to see whether the authors have made any of a number of well-known logical errors. Such common flaws in argument are;
- ❖ The use of emotionally toned words
- ❖ Making sweeping statements
- ❖ Proof by only selecting material that backs up the authors point of view
- ❖ The recommendation of a stance because it is a mean between two extreme perspectives
- ❖ The use of logically unsound argument
- ❖ Failure to distinguish factual statements from opinion
- ❖ Changing the mean of a term during the academic argument
- ❖ Disguising the lack of clear thought by extensive use of jargon
- ❖ Ad hominem arguments – attacking the arguer

Liturgy and Literature in the Making of Protestant England

Timothy Rosendale, 2007-09-20 The Book of Common Prayer is one of the most important and influential books in English history but it has received relatively little attention from literary scholars This study seeks to remedy this by attending to the prayerbook's importance in England's political intellectual religious and literary history The first half of the book presents extensive analyses of the Book of Common Prayer's involvement in early modern discourses of nationalism and individualism and argues that the liturgy sought to engage and textually reconcile these potentially competing cultural impulses In its second half Liturgy and Literature traces these tensions in subsequent works by four major authors Sidney Shakespeare Milton and Hobbes and contends that they operate within the dialectical parameters laid out in the prayerbook decades earlier Rosendale's analyses are supplemented by a brief history of the Book of Common Prayer and by an appendix which

discusses its contents Making Books David Carter, Anne Galligan, 2007 A MUST HAVE FOR ANYONE INVOLVED OR INTERESTED IN THE PUBLISHING INDUSTRY A wide ranging study of contemporary publishing in Australia specifically focusing on the period from 1990 onwards and looking towards the future The Australian publishing industry turns over almost 2 billion dollars a year This collection of essays analyses the structure and dynamics of the industry in the context of social cultural and legal forces Making Books presents a sophisticated introduction to the structure and dynamics of the contemporary publishing industry Chapters focus on topics such as the structure of the Australian publishing industry the culture of the publishing house editorial practice and policy publishing and cultural policy the decline of literary publishing Books can the impact of new technologies on the industry and much much more How to Write Books with ChatGPT and Make Money Martín Arellano, To Make Negro Literature Elizabeth McHenry, 2021-08-09 Elizabeth McHenry locates a hidden chapter in the history of Black literature at the turn of the twentieth century revising concepts of Black authorship and offering a fresh account of the development of Negro literature focused on the never published the barely read and the unconventional The Geometry of the Three First Books of Euclid Hensleigh Wedgwood, 2024-01-04 Reprint of the original first published in 1856 Research Methods for Education, second edition Peter Newby, 2014-07-11 Research Methods for Education Second Edition takes the student by the hand and guides them through the complex subject of research methods in an engaging witty and clear way The book covers the philosophical approaches and epistemology as well as the practical aspects of research such as designing questionnaires and presenting conclusions Each chapter is split into Context and Practice and both sections are packed with exercises examples and comparative international material from other educational contexts Peter Newby's book is the student friendly text which demystifies the research process with clarity and verve Key features written in a clear and friendly manner to help students feel more confident dealing with the complexities of research and particularly useful for those new to research or less confident with numbers a mixed methods approach which doesn't simply prioritise quantitative or qualitative methods allowing for greatest possible coverage contains guidance on analytic procedures that require more advanced tools such as SPSS and Minitab many excellent international examples and case studies specifically from education which breaks away from a parochial focus on UK education system
